

MINE UNION CHIEFS CALL HARD COAL STRIKE WHILE UNITED STATES BUREAUS PREPARE DEFENSE

Governor Calls Legislators To Meet Nov. 7

SESSION TO LAST ONLY TWENTY DAYS BELIEVES WALKER

Tax Reform and Free Textbooks Are Only Measures to Be Considered.

EXPECT CONVOCATION WILL LAST 20 DAYS

Executive Cites Crying Need for Levy Reform in State in Call for Meet of Legislators.

Governor Clifford Walker late Friday afternoon issued a formal call to the Georgia general assembly to meet in extraordinary session beginning November 7 next.

Two paramount measures are to be considered at the session, including tax reform, and free textbooks for the common schools of the state. Despite efforts of delegations, individuals and assembly leaders to have other legislation considered at the special session, the governor declined to allow any except the two measures enumerated to come up for consideration at that time.

Governor Walker cannot fix the limit of the session, but he intimated he expected the assembly to complete its work by November 20, which would allow the lawmakers 20 days in which to adopt a satisfactory taxation law.

Considered Sometime. Announcement that he would call an extraordinary session was made by Governor Walker on August 15, shortly after the house had tabled all tax reform measures before it for consideration. Since that time the governor has been considering the contents of the call, which he completed late Friday afternoon.

The formal call issued by the governor, follows:

"Whereas, unrest and bitterness are along all industrial lines depends upon the establishment of a stabilized system of taxation, and, "Whereas, experience has closely demonstrated that there can be no civic peace or harmony among the people of the state, and that taxation can not and will not be stabilized under the present so-called tax equalization law in the practical operation of which tax experts estimate that from one-third to one-half of the people and one-third to one-half of the burdens of taxation, while many of the citizens of the state most able to pay taxes, having large annual incomes from salaries and other sources, are entirely exempted taxation, and, "Unrest Increasing.

Whereas, unrest and bitterness are increasing among the people, business is growing more unsettled and large industrial plants leaving the north and east are being located in the southern states because of the unstable condition of taxation in Georgia, and,

"Whereas, the continuance of this unfair, unjust and unsettled condition of affairs will work irreparable loss and damage to the people of the state, and,

"Whereas, the income of the state is not sufficient to pay the existing obligations to the old Confederate veterans, equal and maintain the common schools, the normal schools, the colleges, the eleemosynary and other institutions of the state to the point of efficiency which will hold Georgia in line with the progressive states of the union, and,

"Whereas, the recent session of the legislature adopted revenue measures of great importance and wide scope, involving the collection of millions of dollars annually without providing necessary means of enforcing the collection of the same, and,

Need New Methods. "Whereas, hundreds of thousands of dollars can be converted into the treasury of the state annually by a scientific and business-like system of enforcing the tax laws, and other obligations to the state, and,

"Whereas, the present laws of the state compel the attendance of all children within prescribed ages upon the schools without providing school books, although many of these children are absolutely unable to purchase the same, and,

"Whereas, the people of Georgia in convention assembled recently declared that such school books should be furnished to pupils in the elementary grades.

"Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by article V, section 1, paragraph 13, of the constitution, I, Clifford Walker, governor

Jap Premier Pro Tem.

VISCOUNT UCHIDA.

VISCOUNT UCHIDA TAKES KATO JOB AS JAP PREMIER

Appointment Is Temporary Pending Formation of New Cabinet—Was Foreign Minister.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. Tokyo, Aug. 24.—Viscount Yasuya Uchida, minister of foreign affairs, has been appointed premier ad interim, and will serve until a new cabinet is formed.

PEACE OF PACIFIC AT STAKE IN RACE.

BY JAMES MCCLAIN.

The death of Admiral Baron Kato, Japanese prime minister, has left a situation in which the life of Japan's new foreign policy, the Washington conference doctrine embodying armament reduction, peaceful cooperation with China and abandonment of military invasion of China and Siberia—in short, the peace of the Pacific—are at stake.

Selection of a man of the Kato type, a statesman closely allied with the Satsuma or naval clan, as the next premier probably will be, means continuation of cooperation with the United States for peaceful development of the Far East. However, should the two aged Genro, experts in the making and unmaking of cabinets, go to the clan of Yamagata, the Choshu, for their man, the old militaristic clique, which originated the notorious 21 demands to China and later the Siberian invasion, will return to power. And with it will come armed force, if necessary, in dealing with the mainland of Asia.

Baron Saito Popular. Admiral Baron Minoru Saito, governor-general of Korea, at first glance seems to be the most popular candidate for the premiership. This may mean but little, however, for Saito has been hailed twice as the logical premier, and each time he was dropped by the elder statesmen. Saito is popular because of his enlightened administration in Korea; he is a naval man, a staunch supporter of disarmament, a great friend of the United States and of Christianity.

Baron Kato's ministry was a go-between, designated to fill a gap until the Seiyukai, majority party, could regain lost prestige and to avoid placing the Kenseikai minority, with its militaristic tendencies, in power. For months a plan has been on foot to inject Viscount Goto, former mayor of Tokyo, into the Seiyukai and let him succeed Kato, who wanted to resign. Goto, accordingly, took the lead for resumption of negotiations with soviet Russia, hoping thus to become a popular idol through success, after failure in two attempts by Japan. Kato's death in all probability kills the Goto boom, for the formal conference with Russia has been delayed.

Continued on Page 7, Column 8.

GERMANY OFFERS ECONOMIC SHARE FOR REPARATION

Chancellor Stresemann in Speech Opens Up New Possibility for Franco-German Compromise.

RENEWS CUNO BASIS FOR SETTLING CLAIM

Rejects Poincare's Suggestion That Railways on Left Bank of Rhine Be Turned Over.

BY FERDINAND JAHN.

Berlin, August 24.—Possibilities of compromise between Germany and France have been offered by Chancellor Stresemann in his declaration that Germany is ready to give the entente "a share in Germany's economy."

The significant statement was made in a speech before an industrial banquet here when the chancellor further declared:

"For the freedom of German territory, for saving our sovereignty and stabilizing our situation, the government would not regard as too high a sacrifice the offering of a part of the German economy as a productive pledge for carrying out German reparations obligations."

Chancellor Cuno's last note of reparations had included an offer from industrialists in Germany to underwrite part of the obligations of the government. It had also offered railroad profits and funds from other sources as reparations security.

This was, at the time, considered as practically tantamount to a mortgage of Germany's tangible assets.

The extent of the new offer is not known. It could be construed as meaning that Germany is willing to give France actual shares in German industries, banks, and business houses. But it is obviously a feeler toward opening new avenues of discussion with the French.

Stresemann stated that, as to gold payments, he could do no more than renew Cuno's offer of 30,000,000,000 gold marks. Cuno's offer was rejected, unseen, by France, who still in-

Continued on Page 5, Column 6.

VIRGINIA SENATOR SWATS PARIS PLAN

Inspired Article in French Paper Proposes Complete Cancellation of War Debts.

BY CARL VICTOR LITTLE.

Paris, August 24.—Partial or complete cancellation of France's war debt by the United States and England is urged in an extraordinary article in the Temps that has all earmarks of being directly inspired by Premier Poincare.

The gist of the article is that France will not repudiate her debt, but that she does not intend to pay it as if it were an ordinary commercial debt, and will contest having it placed on such a footing.

The latest effort to muddle the debt issue met swift response from American congressmen here. "Any impression that America proposes to permit amounts due from Europe to be complicated with the question of reparations is erroneous," Senator Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, ranking democrat in the senate foreign relations committee, told the United News in discussing the plan. "When the debts were incurred there was no question of reparations, and it is improper to inject them now."

Violations of Traffic Regulations Will Be Shown in Motion Pictures

Photo by Mathewson & Price, Staff Photographers.

Showing the first of a series of motion pictures being made in Atlanta under the auspices of the Safety Council to be used in the council's safety program. This scene is made at Five Points and shows an automobile attempting a left turn, which is forbidden at this point. Other scenes to be made during the next week will include actual auto smashups resulting from disregard of traffic regulations, injuries, sustained by careless driving or by lack of attention of pedestrians when crossing streets, and other dangers arising from carelessness of auto drivers and others. When completed the film will be shown in Atlanta theaters as a feature of a safety program to promote respect for the law and to reduce accidents to a minimum.

Law Technicality May Save Floggers From Prison Terms

Court Pronouncing Sentence Without Jurisdiction, Is Charge.

Tulsa, Okla., August 24.—Possibility that the sentence imposed upon Ben F. Sikes, Grover C. Sikes and Earl Sack, confessed floggers, might be voided, was seen by county officials here today when it was reported that the scene of the whipping for which the men were sentenced was about a mile outside the jurisdiction of the court in which they were sentenced.

It was indicated that an investigation would be made at once to determine where the whipping occurred. Ben Wagner, the victim, lives just across the Tulsa county line in Wagoner county.

It was said at the county attorney's office that if it is found the whipping occurred in Wagoner county, the sentences imposed here will be illegal and that the men will have to be turned over to Wagoner county authorities for prosecution.

Advised of the development, Attorney General George Short said in Oklahoma City that the "men have been sentenced to the penitentiary on their confession and we will see that they get there. However, the courts are open."

TWO DIE AS HEROES IN RESCUE ATTEMPT

Butler, Okla., August 24.—Otto Kline and T. P. Scott died as heroes Friday.

Both volunteered to rescue Paul Jones, who had been overcome by gas fumes, while working in the bottom of a well.

The bodies were recovered later by the use of grappling hooks.

ITALY TAKES CENSUS OF BARS, WINE SHOPS

Rome, August 24.—The Italian government has appointed a committee for experts to report on a plan curtailing the number of bars and wine shops in Italy.

There is now one bar or wine shop for every 67 Italians. It is proposed to limit available cases one to every 1,000 inhabitants.

ATLANTA BOOSTED AS AERIAL MAIL SERVICE CENTER

"Our Possible Combination of Termini Are Chicago-New Orleans, Chicago-Atlanta."

Likelihood of Atlanta becoming an aerial mail terminal was revived Friday when Associated Press dispatches from Omaha, Neb., quoted Colonel Paul Henderson, second assistant postmaster general, as saying that within a relatively short time all important commercial and industrial centers of the country will be connected with lighted airways over which mail will move at night.

The official said that Atlanta possibly would become the terminal of an aerial mail route from Chicago. New Orleans was mentioned as the probable terminal of another line from Chicago.

Postmaster Edwin K. Large was in Pablo Beach, Fla., Friday night, and was therefore unavailable for a statement on the dispatch. It is known that he is enthusiastic over the possibilities of aerial mail service.

Seek Air Mail Service. A concerted effort has been made by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce and other local civic organizations to secure air mail service here, the principal handicap thus far having been the lack of adequate landing facilities. Civic leaders have been working for the past several months towards the establishment here of a large landing field.

According to the Associated Press dispatch, Colonel Henderson, who is directing the aerial mail experimental flights from ocean to ocean, declared in an address Friday before

Continued on Page 18, Column 5.

Underground Room Of Terminal Depot Houses Big Still

Used City Sewer as Smokestack—Lighted by Electricity.

Birmingham, Ala., August 24.—City detectives today reported the discovery of a 50 gallon still and other liquor-making paraphernalia in a subterranean passage underneath the Birmingham terminal station.

Entrance to the underground room was by way of a manhole in a street railway underpass. Smoke from plant was disposed of through the terminal sewage system and water was obtained from a pipe that supplied the terminal, officers said.

The place was said to have been electrically equipped with lights and a signal system.

TWO RAIL LINES GIVE WAGE HIKES

Chicago, August 24.—Voluntary wage increases on two eastern railroads were announced today by the United States Railroad Labor board. The Boston and Maine has raised the pay of 5,800 employees in mechanical departments 3 cents an hour or $441,000 a year, and an increase of $160,000 a year, effective July 1 has been awarded 2,100 mechanics, firemen and oilers by the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad.

BRITISH TANKER SENDS S. O. S. CALL

Galveston, Tex., August 24.—The British tanker G. R. Crowe was reported in distress this afternoon, according to radio dispatches received at the naval radio station here from the American tanker Gulfport. The position of the Crowe as given was about 150 miles east of Tampico. The Gulfport reported the tanker Gulf Trade in touch with the Crowe.

WINNER IN BEAUTY CONTEST IS NAMED BY FIVE JUDGES

Name of Girl Selected to Represent Atlanta at Atlantic City Will Be Announced Sunday.

SECOND AND THIRD CHOICES ARE MADE

Contestants Are Guests of Constitution at Tea After Judges Complete Work—Moving Pictures Made.

Blonde or brunette—short or tall? Who will be "Miss Atlanta?"

Final judging in The Constitution's contest to select a representative for the National Beauty Tournament was completed Friday afternoon, and "Miss Atlanta's" identity will be made public in The Constitution of Sunday morning.

Judging was narrowed down Thursday from thirty to twelve beautiful girls, and on Friday afternoon at the Atlanta Woman's club the final selection was made.

Three Girls Chosen.

At the same time, second and third choices for the title of the most beautiful girl in Atlanta were selected by the judges and will succeed in order to the title of the most beautiful girl in Atlanta if anything should prevent the first choice from making the trip.

At the close of the judging The Constitution was host to the twelve candidates at a tea on the terrace of the Atlanta Woman's club. Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, president, and Mrs. Norman Sharp, vice president of the woman's club, assisted by members of The Constitution woman's department, acted as chaperones.

Judges were Forrest Adair, prominent realtor; Mayor Walter A. Sims, Mrs. Charles Jerome, chairman of the woman club's art committee; Miss Pearl Saville, director of southern life-saving training for the Red Cross, and Wesley Hirschberg, artist-photographer.

Moving pictures of the judging were for exclusive use of the Howard

Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

AIR MAIL PILOTS CUT TIME RECORDS

Continent Spanned by Flier Relays Six Times in Three Days—Fourth Flight on Wing.

Chicago, August 24.—Over the 885 miles of lighted airway between Chesapeake and Chicago two mail planes sped tonight in the last of four transcontinental flights to test the feasibility of establishing continuous day and night flight across the continent for mail planes.

Six times during the week their predecessors have spanned the United States in a little more than a day, three times from east to west and three from west to east, and have thoroughly demonstrated the possibility of coast-to-coast mail service on a definite schedule in approximately 24 hours.

While postoffice officials have announced that the six flights have assured "transcontinental mail service, the last flight was being watched with interest because each of the preceding ones had clipped time from schedules.

The third flight ended today with the mail plane from San Francisco landing at New York at 11:14 a. m.

Continued on Page 5, Column 6.

COOLIDGE NAMES PINCHOT TO TRY FOR CONCILIATION

President Offers Miners and Operators Chance to Back Up and Save Their Dignity.

WHITE HOUSE DENIES DEFINITE PEACE PLAN

Coal Commission Publishes Report Showing Reasons Walkout Suicidal to Both Parties.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Atlantic City, N. J., August 24.—Scale committees of the miners' union in the three anthracite districts of Pennsylvania today authorized their officers to order all miners to cease work on September 1 and adjourn, leaving the city.

The union officials, however, were authorized to make arrangements with the anthracite mine operators for continuance at their posts of approximately 4,000 union men to operate pumps and do maintenance work necessary to keep the mines from flooding during the suspension.

PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNOR IS SPECIAL MEDIATOR

Washington, August 24.—An avenue through which anthracite miners and operators might come together in further effort to reach a settlement of their existing differences was provided by President Coolidge today in the designation of Governor Pinchot, of Pennsylvania, as special mediator.

Maintaining the conviction that suspensions of hard coal production September 1 would be suicidal to both employee and operator, the government's action was said to be designed to furnish a medium through which conciliatory influences on both sides might operate without damage to the strategic position, or the dignity of either.

After a luncheon-conference at the white house, Governor Pinchot returned to Harrisburg with the announced intention of getting in touch at once with representatives of the miner and operator groups. It was stated that no definite proposal had been evolved at the white house meeting and that Mr. Pinchot's first move would be to ascertain whether a basis for further discussion exists, despite the unequivocal tenor of the statements issued at the conclusion of the Atlantic City conference.

Hammond in Conference. Describing the relations of Governor Pinchot to the federal authorities as "solely cooperative," a spokesman for the president pointed out that his selection was a particularly happy one because the anthracite fields are located almost exclusively in Pennsylvania and because of the unusual legislative safeguards thrown around the industry by state laws. Possibility of the Pennsylvania statutes licensing mine operations being used in the effort to reach a settlement was discounted by Mr. Pinchot, however. Chairman Hammond, of the coal commission, which has been the designated agency of the federal government.

Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

The Weather PARTLY CLOUDY

Washington—Forecast: Georgia—Partly cloudy in north and showers in south portion Saturday and Sunday; moderate temperature.

Local Weather Report.

Highest temperature ..... 77
Lowest temperature ..... 65
Mean temperature ..... 71
Normal temperature ..... 76
Rainfall in past 24 hours, inches .55
Deficiency since last of month, ins. 4.68
Excess since January 1st, inches 1.30

7 a.m. Noon 7 p.m.

Dry temperature .67 71 72

Wet bulb ..... 66 68 69

Relative humidity .95 88 88

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature, Rain, etc.
ATLANTA, clear	72 71 55
Birmingham, clear	72 62 54
Boston, clear	60 68 60
Buffalo, clear	60 69 18
Chicago, rain	72 74 4.50
Charlotte, clear	78 72 55
Denver, pt. cloudy	72 82 60
Des Moines, clear	74 80 30
Galveston, pt. cloudy	82 86 60
Hatteras, cloudy	72 76 60
Harre, clear	78 82 60
Kansas City, clear	76 78 60
Jacksonville, cloudy	78 86 64
Memphis, clear	76 78 60
Miami, pt. cloudy	82 88 60
Mobile, cloudy	78 82 60
Montgomery, cloudy	78 84 60
New Orleans, cloudy	82 88 60
New York, clear	68 74 60
North Platte, cloudy	76 86 60
Oklahoma, clear	86 90 60
Phoenix, cloudy	94 98 60
Pittsburg, pt. cloudy	68 72 60
Raleigh, clear	68 70 60
San Francisco, clear	68 78 60
St. Louis, pt. cloudy	80 84 60
Salt Lake City, cloudy	86 90 60
Shreveport, clear	80 80 60
Tampa, cloudy	80 88 60
Toledo, clear	64 72 62
Vicksburg, clear	78 78 60
Washington, clear	70 78 60

C. F. von HERNANN. Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

6 of the Greatest Writers
of the Day

W. L. George, Captain Dingle, Wallace Irwin
Sir Philip Gibbs, Helen Bullitt Lowery,
F. Scott Fitzgerald
In The Magazine Tomorrow

There's a ROGERS Store near you
ROGERS
 Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

OUR TWO Extra Specials FOR TODAY

A most substantial twine

16-OZ. MOP 57c

A wonderful value at this price—a big reduction from our regular selling price. It is not only a durable mop, but has cushion ends so that floors and furniture cannot be scratched from using it.

Old Dutch Cleanser 7½c

Buy several cans at this price. You know how standard is this cleanser—and this is a really big value.

SPECIALS TODAY in Purity Markets

in Rogers' Stores

Fancy Milk-Fed Veal
 Veal Stew | Veal Chops
 7c lb. | 22c lb.

Veal Steaks (front) 18c lb.
 Fresh Pig Brains, 12½c

PRODUCE SPECIALS TODAY

California Malaga
Grapes, 15c lb.

The first arrivals in the city. They are luscious, fine and sweet.

Also fine California Seedless Grapes
 3 lbs. for 25c

Another carload just received of Fancy Bartlett

Eating Pears 29c Doz.

Large Fancy California or Imported

Lemons, 27c Doz.

Hundreds of other good pure food items at a big saving in price

There's a ROGERS Store near you
ROGERS
 Where Satisfaction is a Certainty

MEAT FOR HEALTH

Dishes Prepared From the Brisket of Beef.

Beef brisket (boiled and browned) If the piece has a large amount of bone, some of this may be removed to use for soup stock, or to furnish gravy to be used with the warmed-over meat for a second service. Cook the solid part of the meat until tender, with a little celery salt and a bit of onions (or garlic, if preferred) added, turning it once during the cooking, which will take from four to six hours, according to the amount of meat used. Remove meat from liquor and place in a shallow pan with the skin side up and score the top several times. Have boiled potatoes ready and drop them into the kettle to take up a little of the fat, then place them around meat and brown all in a hot oven for about 20 minutes. Make gravy with the remaining liquor and serve separately.

Braised Beef—Cut the meat into cubes; brown in frying pan with drippings. Use strong heat and stir meat so it will cook quickly and not lose its juice. Tender cuts can be cooked whole. Remove the pieces to a closely covered kettle that can be used on top of range (unless the oven is heated for other cooking). Rinse the pan with 1-4 cup of boiling water to save all browned bits, and pour over meat. Cover tightly and cook slowly for two hours. Prepare the following sauce and pour over the meat and continue cooking for another hour: One onion, one carrot and a few sprigs parsley, chopped together; two tablespoons butter, oleomargarine or other preferred fat; 1-2 cup diced celery; one cup canned tomatoes, salt and paprika. Melt fat. Brown onion, carrot in it. Add parsley, celery, tomatoes. Heat thoroughly. Add seasonings.

Boiled Brisket of Beef With Horseradish Sauce—Requires four pounds brisket of beef, 1-2 cup turnips (cut into cubes), one large onion (cut fine), two thin slices fat salt pork, celery leaves, salt and pepper, 1-2 cup carrots (cut into cubes). Method: Wipe beef with damp cloth, dredge with flour, brown in the fat from trying the salt pork. Place in large kettle, surround with vegetables and add three cups of boiling water. Cover and cook in slow oven three hours (a pressure cooker requires about one-third as long), basting every 30 minutes. Turn the meat twice during the cooking period. Do not pierce with the fork in handling as this allows the juice to escape.

Horseradish Sauce is made as follows: To two tablespoons grated horseradish, add one egg yolk, 1-2 teaspoonful sugar, 1-2 tablespoon French mustard, 1 1-2 tablespoon white vinegar, 1-2 cup thickly whipped cream, salt and pepper. Stir well before adding each new ingredient. Serve this cold sauce over the meat while very hot, and serve on hot plates.

Thomas B. Connor Honored by National Security Commission

Thomas B. Connor, chief examiner of the Georgia securities commission, was elected first vice president of the National Association of Security Commissioners at its annual convention, held recently in Madison, Wis.

Mr. Connor is regarded as one of the ablest members of the organization of security commissioners. He was formerly a member of The Constitution editorial staff.

SLEEPING GARMENT DONATION IS MADE

Atlanta Girl Scouts have been requested to donate 25 sleeping garments to the Associated Charities. Twelve boys and 13 girls between the ages of 8 and 12 years will be taken on a two-weeks' outing by the charities Monday, and practically all the clothing of these children must be supplied. Girl Scouts who will give a sleeping garment are asked to bring their donations to the headquarters, 51 Marietta street.

Sanitary MARKET CO.
RETAIL AT WHOLESALE

Saturday Specials

Beef Stew ..... 5c
 Chuck Roast ..... 8c
 Rump Roast ..... 10c
 Rib Roast ..... 12½c
 Pork Shoulders ..... 12½c
 Salt Meat ..... 12½c
 Clear Bellies ..... 12½c
 Round Roast ..... 15c
 Loin Roast ..... 15c
 Pork Hams ..... 17½c
 Rex Lard ..... $1.40
 10 Lbs. Net

13 Fairlie 33 Edgewood Ave.
 16 S. Pryor 20 N. Broad 24 S. Broad

COFFEE

Red Circle
 lb.
 33c

TEA

Orange Pekoe
 ½ Lb.
 34c

FLOUR A&P, 24-lb. bag $1.07
 Pillsbury .. $1.09

A CARLOAD OF REGULAR 7c SIZE

MATCHES Ohio Blue Box 5c
 Tip
 THIS PRICE AS LONG AS THEY LAST

Bacon Sunnyfield Sliced Without rind Saturday only lb. 29c

POST'S Bran-Flakes PEANUT BUTTER
 Package 11c Bulk, lb., 25c

Old Dutch Cleanser 3 cans 25c

MARSHMALLOWS Heides, 2 pkgs. 25c

CHERRIES, Freemont Red Pitted. Can 25c

JAM, Grandmother's Pure Fruit, Jar . . 29c

Luncheon Rolls to wrap your Picnic Lunch. Pkg. 10c

Another New Store Opened at LUCILE and HOLDERNESS.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC CO. TEA
 Over 7500 stores in the U.S.A.

COTTON DEALERS WILL ORGANIZE

Formation of a cotton shippers and merchants' cooperative association is expected to be effected at a meeting of leading cotton dealers from Georgia, Alabama and South and North Carolina, to be held here on September 7, it was revealed Friday by the Atlanta Convention bureau.

Several hundred merchants and shippers will be in Atlanta to discuss and perfect plans for a permanent association in the southeastern United States. Such organizations already exist in every other cotton growing district, it is said, even in Arizona and California, where organization is now under way.

The movement for an association in the southeast is the result of a trip of inspection made recently by an official of the Texas Cotton association, over the states included under the new plan. He was assured that there was opportunity for such a body in this section, and the conference call resulted. Several members of the Texas association will attend the meeting, including R. C. Dickerson, vice president and general manager of the Texas group.

The gathering will be held in the assembly hall of the Chamber of Commerce building. The Atlanta Convention bureau, through its secretary, is lending its assistance in making the meeting a success and is giving aid to the following committee that will undertake to form the new organization: J. J. Williamson, of Williamson, Inman & Stribling, Atlanta; D. D. Summey of George H. McFadden &

Brothers agency, Atlanta; Fred Cockrell, of Anderson, Clayton & Co., Atlanta; C. W. Bradshaw, of Bradshaw-Robertson Cotton Co., Greensboro, N. C.; M. C. Heath, of M. C. Heath & Co., Columbia, S. C.; W. S. Griffin, of Cooper & Griffin, Greenville, S. C.; J. H. Weil, of L. W. Weil & Co., Montgomery, Ala.

All cotton merchants and shippers interested may write J. T. Hiers, traffic manager of the Williamson, Inman & Stribling Co., 33 Ivy Street, Atlanta, Ga.

EDUCATION CAMPAIGN 'PAY-UP WEEK' SET

After consultation with the presiding bishops, Dr. Elam F. Dempsey, secretary of education of the North Georgia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and Dr. James A. Harmon, secretary-treasurer for the South Georgia conference, have named the week of October 7-14 as "Pay Up Week" for the two Georgia conferences. During this week, all past due pledges to the Christian education movement are expected to be paid. Preceding this week, there will be a state-wide campaign of preparation.

The annual conference committee will direct the campaign throughout the conference. The bishop, conference secretary of education, lay leaders of each district, college presidents and one other layman from each district will compose the committee. The committee is expected to meet in Macon and in Atlanta.

The district committee consists of the presiding elder, the district lay leaders, pastors, charge lay leaders, local church collectors and chairman of the committee on education, and will do for the district what the conference committee does for the entire conference. The local church committee, composed of the pastor, charge lay leaders, local church collectors, and the committee on education, shall be in charge of the pastor. This committee will see that three-minute speakers are provided at the various services and will reinforce the educational message of the pastor.

Invites Aldermanic Aspirants to Speak At Meeting Tonight

All candidates for alderman Friday were invited by Dr. W. M. Ethridge, candidate for re-election from the fifth ward, to a meeting to be held at his home tonight at eight o'clock. Dr. Ethridge lives at Chestnut and Kennedy streets.

Dr. W. B. Lingco, candidate for alderman from the second ward; Dr. P. L. Moon and his opponent, Dr. L. N. Huff, of the ninth ward, and others will address the gathering.

Return From Norfolk.

Harold C. Smith, assistant to the pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, and his wife returned this week from Norfolk, Va., where they have been visiting their parents for the past month.

For "tween meal" hunger---homemade goodies

Roller Champion

When those romping boys and girls get hungry give them wholesome home-cooked dainties—delicious doughnuts, toothsome tea cakes and crisp cookies.

At Your Grocer's

Made with Roller Champion flour means they're chock full of the energizing nutriment of Nature's healthiest food—the golden grains of Winter wheat, silk-sifted to absolute purity. Plain or self-rising; both at your grocer's.

J. C. DYSON, Distributor
 1000 Marietta St.
 Phone IVy 7117

IVY 3297 PINK CHERRY WE DELIVER
 Something Good to Eat—That's All.
 NORTH PRYOR AND HOUSTON STREETS
 Fancy Leg
 Genuine Spring LAMB 30c
 Fancy Dressed 35c Creamery Butter..... 50c Friers.....

A Syrup for Every Use. Try It!

Candy making, preserving or cooking in any form where sugar can be used.

We Sell
Roller Champion
 The flour the best cooks use!

Peavy's Market

PHONE IVY 8110
 WE DELIVER
 Opposite Grand Theater
 No. 10 PURE LARD $1.10
 Best Leg O' Lamb, lb.... 25c
 Sliced Breakfast Bacon..... 25c
 Friers..... 38c
 Hens..... 27½c
 Brooks Co. Hams..... 22½c

We Sell
Roller Champion
 The flour the best cooks use!

KARO
 For Home
 Candy
 Making

Stewart D. Jones

17 E. MITCHELL ST.
 Tall Bess Milk..... 10c
 No. 3 Can Apples..... 10c
 No. 3 Can Tomatoes..... 12½c
 Best California Grapes, Lb..... 10c
 No. 10 Pure Lard..... $1.17
 Ballard's or Roller Champion.. $1.17
 EVERY TIME YOU MISS COMING WE BOTH LOSE.

Just the Syrup For Every Need
 We Sell
Roller Champion
 The flour the best cooks use!

AMERICA HOLDS KEY TO EUROPE STABILITY

Memphis, Tenn., August 24.—The election of Allan H. Hinchey, Cape Girardeau, Mo., as president, the adoption of resolutions which included a pledge that members put a "conservative optimism" into their business, and an address by Oscar W. Underwood, United States senator from Alabama, featured the closing session of the convention of the Cotton States Merchants' association here today.

Smith, Malvern, Ark., and John M. Mays, Greenwood, La., vice presidents; P. M. Birmingham, Memphis, secretary, to succeed himself, and S. E. Bagland, of Memphis, treasurer, also re-elected.

Henard's Mayonnaise and Relish

Has The Flavor Without The Labor

Fresh, Pure and Wholesome

Made from the very finest Oils, Eggs, Spices, etc., in a Modern, Up-to-Date Sanitary Plant fresh daily.

The ladies of Atlanta may now have a High-Grade Mayonnaise or Relish without the bother of making it at home.

NO WORRY—NO WORK—NO FAILURES

Made in Atlanta by

THE HENARD MAYONNAISE CO.
112 East Ellis Street Telephone IVy 6320

MEAT - MEAT - MEAT AT BUEHLER BROS.

We Sell for Less and Give the Best.

Loins	Round	Porterhouse
Brooks County Hams...22c	Picnic Hams...15c	Fresh Spareribs...10c
Beef Roast...8c	Fancy Chuck Roast...8c	Pork Chops...25c
Pot Roast...8c	Breakfast Bacon, strip...18c	Breakfast Bacon, sliced...22c
	Beef Stew...5c	Rump Roast...12 1/2c
	Pork Shoulders...12 1/2c	Pork Hams...21c
	Streaked Salt Meat...12 1/2c

BUEHLER BROS.

15 W. ALABAMA ST. 35 N. PRYOR ST.

Smith, Malvern, Ark., and John M. Mays, Greenwood, La., vice presidents; P. M. Birmingham, Memphis, secretary, to succeed himself, and S. E. Bagland, of Memphis, treasurer, also re-elected.

Responsibility Here.
"Prosperity of America depends in large measure upon the political stability of European countries," delegates were told by Senator Underwood, who protested that "upon this country rests the responsibility of leading the war-weakened nations from unrest and near-chaos into a state of governmental and economic equilibrium. "There are more issues in Europe out of which to make war now," declared the senator, who recently toured that continent, "than there were in 1914."

It's a saving grace that she is "broke." Not a ministry in the countries which engaged in the late war knows today that it will be in existence two weeks hence. The present German government may be the last we shall see under the republic. If it falls, chaos will inevitably result.

Strong Hand Is Needed.
Mr. Underwood, who recently expressed his readiness to accept the democratic nomination for the presidency for which his friends are booming him, asserted that business stability was impossible without political stability. Europe has neither gold nor American securities with which to buy American products, he said, and unless trade can be established, the American farmer and business man will continue to be shut out from the great European markets.

"What are you going to do about it?" demanded the speaker. "There is only one man in this country who can do anything about it—and that is the president, through diplomatic channels."

"It is not the slow hand of a court which is needed in Europe, but the strong hand of a strong government, standing for peace. Let a man shirk his responsibility to his family, his neighbor or to his country and he will never prosper. If our country shirks this responsibility, we will pay the price."

HE USES DYNAMITE TO COMMIT SUICIDE
Watertown, N. Y., August 24.—Frank Becker, 54, committed suicide today at his home near New Bremen, by blowing his body into fragments with a charge of dynamite.

FLY FLU $20 IF IT FAILS
The greatest insecticide and germ killer made
Every bottle has a sprayer
GUARANTEED!

WE SELL
Morning Joy
PURE COFFEE
Absolutely Fresh, Pure and Delicious.

Police Searching For Step-Parents of Murdered Bride

Colorado Springs, Colo., August 24.—The police of Denver were asked early this morning by District Attorney W. L. Strachan to find and hold for investigation C. E. Lowe and his wife, stepfather and mother, respectively of Mrs. Elsie Jorgensen Suttle, 17-year-old bride of R. H. Suttle, Jr., who was found slain on a bed at her home here shortly before noon yesterday.

Early today the police had made no arrests in connection with the murder. Their principal clue, it was said, was found in reading a packet of five crumpled letters discovered under a pillow on the slain girl's bed.

Search is being made for a man designated by the police as "Jack," who is thought to have invaded the girl's room in an effort to obtain the letters. Police said that the young woman had carried on a correspondence with an adulter, and that a window box in her room had been used as a postoffice both by Mrs. Suttle and the suspect. They declined to reveal the contents of the letters.

Search is being made also for a young Spaniard, known as "Mando," said by police to be a rejected suitor of the girl, on the theory that he can throw some light on the case.

According to the story told police by Mrs. R. H. Suttle Sr., the man sought by the police called to see the young bride about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The girl refused to see the visitor.

Mrs. Suttle said she went to a store soon after and when she returned about an hour later found the girl lying in a pool of blood on the bed. The room bore evidence of a struggle.

When Mrs. Suttle entered the room, she said, Elsie was lying across the bed, clad only in a torn night dress. A blood-stained pillow covered her head and she was unconscious. Mrs. Suttle summoned neighbors and the girl was taken to a hospital, where she died without regaining consciousness.

Hospital doctors said the young woman had been beaten on the head with a blunt weapon. In addition, there were finger marks on her neck and her left collar bone was broken. The slain girl's husband works in a local bicycle shop. They were married in July this year.

BROOKHART RENEWS ATTACK ON MEREDITH

Jewell, Iowa, August 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Declaring that he would be "only too glad" to go under oath to "tell the farmers of Iowa and the United States what I have learned about the financial schemes to drive them back to peasantry," United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart, addressing an 'American Legion picnic here today, renewed his attack on E. T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, with whom he has taken issue on the financial condition of the farmer. It was Mr. Brookhart's first public reference to Mr. Meredith since the latter announced his intention to file a suit for alleged libel against the senator.

"Mr. Meredith, too, will be under oath," said the senator, "and we will find out from his own mouth whether he made a fight against the deflation of the farmers or whether he sat mum in the Wall Street game."

His address follows in part: "My speech at Radcliffe seems to have offended Mr. Meredith very grievously and now he proposes to sue me for thirty cents damages. I am glad that he has been so considerate in the amount, for if he beats me that is about all that I can save out of my salary after paying this year's deficit on my farm."

"But Mr. Meredith does not want to settle. He wants to put me on record under oath. This I welcome. I will be only too glad to tell the farmers of Iowa and of the United States under oath what I have learned about the financial schemes to drive them back to peasantry."

"The Manufacturers' Record says the deflation policy cost the farmers of the United States $32,000,000,000—$18,000,000,000 in reduction of land value and $14,000,000,000 under the crops of 1920 and 1921. The department of commerce put this item at $17,000,000,000, but Mr. Meredith in his statements intimates he never heard of these deflations."

"He says the issue between us is whether the American farmers' financial condition is worse this year than last. There is no such issue with me. The only issue with me is whether or not the farmer is getting a square deal this year, last year and every other year. And I deny he is getting it. He was behind in 1921, he was more behind in 1922, and he is going more behind in 1923, in spite of the 15-12 per cent so-called

"better off" of the agriculture department. "If a farmer lost $1,000 in 1921 and then lost $500 in 1922 and then lost $250 in 1923, I think he is worse off all the time and not better, and I think he fails to get a square deal every year."

PROTEST LEGALITY OF MOBILE PORT BILL

Montgomery, Ala., August 24.—Provision for an additional one cent gasoline tax was introduced in a bill by Representative Alfred Tunstall, of Dale, in the house this morning.

Formal protest against the legality of the action of the house in passing the Mobile port bill development was filed in the house of representatives by Representative J. Lee Long, of Butler, principal opponent of the port measure.

The protest of Representative Long was signed by 24 other members of the house and claimed that under the constitution, a two third vote is required to issue bonds, which the bill did not receive.

Bills favorably reported in the house this morning were those providing for a full time game warden for each county of the state, to be appointed by the commissioner of conservation; that to reorganize the conservation commission's office and to raise his salary to $4,000 from $3,000 per annum; appropriation of $25,000 for the improvement and development of the oyster reefs of the state; and primary election bill abolishing second choice vote.

LADDIE BOY REACHES HOME OF MRS. BARKER

Newtonville, Mass., August 24.—Laddie Boy, airle pet of the late President Harding, was installed today in his new home here with Mrs. Harry J. Barker, wife of the secret service man to whom Mrs. Harding gave him.

The dog was brought from Washington by Russell Barker, son of the secret service man.

The newshy throughout the country are contributing cents to be mailed down and cast into a statuette of Laddie Boy which is to be presented to Mrs. Harding.

SEIZE BOOZE SHIP AND $25,000 CARGO

Biloxi, Miss., August 24.—The auxiliary schooner "Aramay," with a cargo of liquor said to be valued at $25,000, was seized by federal authorities today in the outside waters of the Gulf of Mexico near Breton Island. Her crew of seven men were brought to Biloxi. The vessel was in charge of Captain J. Walton, and had received its cargo at Belize and Nassau.

General March Posts Bans for Marriage To U. S. "Spinster"

London, August 24.—Notice of intention to marry was posted on behalf of Major General Peyton C.

March, former chief of staff of the American army, and Miss Cora Virginia McIntee to-day at the registry office of St. George's in the Buckingham Palace district.

The marriage, it is understood, will take place here in the near future. Miss McIntee was described on the register as "American spinster, aged 26."

50 PERSONS KILLED AS TRAIN HITS DAM
Warsaw, August 24.—(Jewish Telegraph Agency.)—More than 50 persons were killed and approximately 100 injured when a train proceeding from Vilna to Warsaw left the tracks near Lida and crashed into a dam early yesterday morning. The impact burst the dam, the ensuing rush of waters helping to swell the casualty list.

The train was filled with passengers, mostly Jews. Among them were a large number of emigrants bound for America. The work of rescue, according to latest reports, was proceeding under greatest difficulty. A special first aid train dispatched from Lida was held up by the damage to the tracks caused by the flood from the bursting dam.

Owens was convicted January 18, last, and was sentenced to be electrocuted March 16. An appeal to the supreme court delayed the execution until today.

Owens attempted to escape from the penitentiary last Sunday but was discovered as he was in the act of sealing the prison walls after he had slipped out of a stockade. He was 51 years old.

LEVIATHAN IS WINNER OVER OLYMPIC IN RACE
Sonthampton, August 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Giant American steamship Leviathan arrived here from New York at 12:35 p. m. today, Greenwich time.

At that hour the White Star liner Olympic, which left New York about the same time as the Leviathan last Saturday, had not yet reached Cherbourg, her first port of call on this side, at which the big American passenger ship arrived at five o'clock this morning. It was estimated by officials of the United States lines that the Leviathan had beaten the Olympic in by at least 12 hours, as the reports indicated the British liner was not likely to reach Cherbourg until around six o'clock this evening.

SIX SAVED IN FIRE BY ENGINE WHISTLE
Salt Lake City, Utah, August 24.—Awakened in the night by the din of a locomotive's whistle and bell, Max O. Knorr, a railroad worker, found his dwelling in flames. Five members of his family were led from the burning home by the father.

Today Knorr thanked the crew of a Western Pacific freight train for saving six lives. The engineer of the train had blown the whistle while the fireman began ringing the bell when they saw the house burning, hoping to arouse the sleeping occupants.

MARYLAND AUTOISTS REQUEST GAS PROBE
Baltimore, Md., August 24.—In an effort to obtain the lower rates for gasoline now being paid in other states the Automobile Club of Maryland has wired the federal government, requesting the price of "gas" by the federal government.

The telegram points out that more than 200,000 autoists in Maryland are affected by the present "exorbitant charges." The club also says that "the only hope of assuring a fair price to the people of Maryland is through the federal government."

PLANNING TEAR GAS FOR BOOTLEGGERS
Fresno, Calif., August 24.—Bootleggers who refuse to open their doors to the minions of the law, will be given a dose of tear gas, according to plans outlined by Chief of Police Truax and District Attorney Lovejoy.

A supply of tear gas bombs has been obtained and will be tossed into the premises of liquor law violators who attempt to bar the doors in a raid and destroy the evidence. It is the theory of local officers that owners of evidence will be so blinded by the gas that officers will be able to enter the place and seize the liquor before owners can find it. Gas mask drill is to be taken up by the police.

Today Is the Last Day BREAD PUDDING CONTEST

Contest Closes Promptly at Three O'Clock Today, August 25th, 1923

Do not overlook this opportunity.

Make a Bread Pudding from UNCLE SAM BREAD and bring it to us before three o'clock today with your recipe and make known your favorite charitable organization.

Judging will be done as rapidly as possible and winners announced next week.

We have no choice of the charities—they are all worthy—so we will have you name your own.

UNCLE SAM BREAD
The Quality Loaf

FIRST PRIZE—

$20.00 Gold for the best Bread Pudding submitted with the recipe for the making. Pudding to be made with UNCLE SAM BREAD.

SECOND PRIZE—

$10.00 Gold for the Second Best Bread Pudding submitted with the recipe. Pudding to be made with UNCLE SAM BREAD.

THIRD PRIZE—

$5.00 Gold for the Third Best Bread Pudding submitted with the recipe. Pudding to be made with UNCLE SAM BREAD.

TEN PRIZES—

After the First, Second and Third Prizes have been awarded, we will give a letter which will be good for $1.00 worth of UNCLE SAM BREAD at any of our dealers for each of the ten next best bread puddings presented with the recipe. Puddings made with UNCLE SAM BREAD.

Schlesinger-Meyer Baking Company
74 Madison Avenue MAin 0779

Are you satisfied with your Coffee?
If you want the Best Coffee Grown
Phone M. 0559 or come to 5 South Broad St.

FARMERS' MARKET

New Building, Courtland Street, Next to Auditorium
Open Every Day and Night Till 8 P. M.

SATURDAY TILL MIDNIGHT
String Beans, quart	12 1/2c
Okra, quart	7 1/2c
Sugar Crowder Peas, quart	7 1/2c
Tomatoes, pound	4c
Irish Potatoes, pound	4c
Sweet Potatoes, pound	6c
New Zealand Spinach, gallon	15c
Turnip Salad, gallon	15c
Egg Plant, each	5c
Bell Peppers, dozen	14c
Fresh Country Eggs	34c

10 STORE UNITS
Atlanta's First Public Market House.
With Everything to Eat, Fresh Meats and Fish, Coffee, Teas, Flour in Same Building.

HOME DRESSED FRYERS 37 1/2 lb.
HENS 27 lb.

Plenty of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables—The Home of Better Western Meats

McIntyre Bros.
85 North Forsyth Street.

PIRATES DREADED BY RUM RUNNERS

Yarmouth, N. S., August 24.—Rum runners who beat down the coast from Canadian ports with supplies to quench the great American thirst, are getting nervous as a result of the increasing frequency of depredations by liquor pirates. The schooner J. Scott Hankinson, which put in here Wednesday after she had been boarded off the New England coast by pirates who seriously wounded her skipper and cook, was the fourth Canadian rum ship to suffer at the hands of modern Captain Kidds in recent months.

The first was the Eddie James, which was boarded off the American coast last spring. Her super-cargo was spirited away and has not been seen since. The pirates took several thousand dollars in cash and a quantity of liquor.

The schooner Katherine was raided a few weeks later but her captain saved out ready cash by a ruse. Wrapping nearly $10,000 in a soiled towel he tossed it into a corner where it lay unmolested while the pirates searched the ship and vainly threatened the skipper in an effort to make him disclose his treasure. They finally departed, taking a couple hundred cases of liquor.

The schooner Lewis H. Smith, according to stories current on the water front, was robbed of more than $20,000 by pirates shortly before her arrival here two months ago.

JOHN W. OWENS DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Little Rock, Ark., August 24.—John W. Owens, of Little River county, died in the electric chair at the Arkansas state prison at 6 o'clock this morning. He was convicted of the murder of Hugh Throckmorton, a fugitive, last December. According to witnesses, Owens met death calmly.

Owens went to his death without a plea for executive clemency. Throckmorton disappeared after a visit to Owens' home with several other men for the purpose, according to a review of the testimony submitted to the supreme court in connection with an appeal of Owens' conviction. After a quarrel, it was set forth, Owens was alleged to have threatened Euclid Cooper, another of the party. Mr. Cooper escaped by swimming Little River. Throckmorton failed to return home and his body was later found in the river.

David Taylor and Harry Lovewell, now serving a sentence of 18 years for implication in the killing, testified that when they went to the Owens' home on the day of the quarrel, Owens forced them to accompany him to where Throckmorton lay, severely wounded. Ignoring Throckmorton's plea, they testified Owens crushed his skull, using a pistol as a club and twisted the wounded man's head until his neck was broken. His body then was thrown into the water, according to the testimony.

Owens was convicted January 18, last, and was sentenced to be electrocuted March 16. An appeal to the supreme court delayed the execution until today.

Owens attempted to escape from the penitentiary last Sunday but was discovered as he was in the act of sealing the prison walls after he had slipped out of a stockade. He was 51 years old.

LEVIATHAN IS WINNER OVER OLYMPIC IN RACE
Sonthampton, August 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Giant American steamship Leviathan arrived here from New York at 12:35 p. m. today, Greenwich time.

At that hour the White Star liner Olympic, which left New York about the same time as the Leviathan last Saturday, had not yet reached Cherbourg, her first port of call on this side, at which the big American passenger ship arrived at five o'clock this morning. It was estimated by officials of the United States lines that the Leviathan had beaten the Olympic in by at least 12 hours, as the reports indicated the British liner was not likely to reach Cherbourg until around six o'clock this evening.

SIX SAVED IN FIRE BY ENGINE WHISTLE
Salt Lake City, Utah, August 24.—Awakened in the night by the din of a locomotive's whistle and bell, Max O. Knorr, a railroad worker, found his dwelling in flames. Five members of his family were led from the burning home by the father.

Today Knorr thanked the crew of a Western Pacific freight train for saving six lives. The engineer of the train had blown the whistle while the fireman began ringing the bell when they saw the house burning, hoping to arouse the sleeping occupants.

MARYLAND AUTOISTS REQUEST GAS PROBE
Baltimore, Md., August 24.—In an effort to obtain the lower rates for gasoline now being paid in other states the Automobile Club of Maryland has wired the federal government, requesting the price of "gas" by the federal government.

The telegram points out that more than 200,000 autoists in Maryland are affected by the present "exorbitant charges." The club also says that "the only hope of assuring a fair price to the people of Maryland is through the federal government."

PLANNING TEAR GAS FOR BOOTLEGGERS
Fresno, Calif., August 24.—Bootleggers who refuse to open their doors to the minions of the law, will be given a dose of tear gas, according to plans outlined by Chief of Police Truax and District Attorney Lovejoy.

A supply of tear gas bombs has been obtained and will be tossed into the premises of liquor law violators who attempt to bar the doors in a raid and destroy the evidence. It is the theory of local officers that owners of evidence will be so blinded by the gas that officers will be able to enter the place and seize the liquor before owners can find it. Gas mask drill is to be taken up by the police.

Atlanta Market
114 Whitehall St.
SATURDAY

Fresh Hamburger	8c
Mixed Sausage	10c
Spare Ribs	10c
Salt Meat	10c
Beef Liver	10c
Veal Roast	20c
Strip	20c
Bacon	22c
Sliced Bacon	22c

UNDERWOOD URGES STAND FOR PEACE

Memphis, Tenn., August 24.—It is not the slow hand of a court that is now needed in Europe, but the strong hand of a strong government, "standing for peace," declared Oscar W. Underwood, United States senator from Atlanta, in addressing the final session of the convention of the Cotton States Merchants' association here today. He urged that this country, "the strongest and greatest government in the world," take a hand in bringing order out of European chaos, asserting:

"I haven't a doubt it could be done."

Senator Underwood, speaking on the subject, "The South and the World Markets," declared that the condition of affairs in Europe was of "tremendous concern to American farmers and business men, from an economic standpoint."

"European conditions are an important business to you as the credits on your ledger," the speaker, who has recently returned from a tour of overseas countries engaged in the war, told the merchants. "What happens outside the limits of this country is of as much interest to you as the man who pays cash."

Trade With Europe Needed.
Establishment and development of trade with Europe, which he characterized as America's great market place, was urged by the senator as the business man's basic requirement for prosperity. "Europe," he declared, "has no money and no American securities with which to buy American goods, but channels of trade alone would permit the war-burdened countries to regain their financial balance with the United States, which," he said, "has since the war become a great creditor nation."

"Just one man in this country," the speaker said, "is able to do anything about the European situation, and he is the president himself, through diplomatic channels. However," said the senator, who insisted he had not come to make a political speech, "neither to dodge issues, 'since the close of the late war 'our government has had no foreign policy' and no position on the European situation."

"Let a man shrink a responsibility to his family, to his neighbor or to his country," continued Mr. Underwood, "and in the end he will pay for it. A nation is only men in the millions. If our country shrinks her responsibility among the nations she will pay for it dearly."

Revolution Threatened.
Referring to European governmental affairs, the speaker declared that there was not a ministry in the great countries which engaged in the war that knows it will exist two weeks in the future. "Not only change of government, but revolution itself is threatened," he said.

"If the present German government should fall, it may be the last we shall see under the republic," he predicted, "and if it falls, chaos is the inevitable result."

Stability of business, Senator Underwood insisted, was impossible without stability of government.

UNION CHIEFS CALL HARD COAL STRIKE

Continued from First Page.

ment in dealing with the anthracite crisis, participated in the white house meeting and, it was announced later, will cooperate heartily with Governor Pinchot. The commission will furnish data and information bearing on the subject to the Pennsylvania executive, a spokesman said, and will hold itself in readiness to assist to a further extent if its services are desired.

No Policy Change.
It was said at the white house that the injection of Governor Pinchot into the picture should not be taken as a change in the policy of non-intervention hitherto followed. The government still holds, it was added, that a cessation of production in the anthracite industry would be a folly impossible of consummation by sensible men. Beyond the material damage which would result to the interests of both miners and operators, President Coolidge was said to feel that a tieup of the anthracite fields would be contrary "to the present atmosphere of national peace and harmony which lends itself to settlement of such questions by agreement rather than by force."

The optimistic view of the coal crisis which has marked the government's attitude since the disruption of the bi-party discussion was more pronounced tonight. A review of the situation, made public by the coal commission, gave in detail the influences which official observers considered to be working for ultimate settlement. These included the certain loss of valuable markets and the possible extinction of anthracite as a necessary fuel, from the operators' standpoint, and the reduction of employment during the coming winter with the possibility of extended depression, from that of the miners.

Can Meet Normal Demand.
A tieup of anthracite production, the commission said, while not sufficient to warrant "panic" forebodings, would constitute an emergency which would promptly met by utilizing every federal authority to supply the consumer. The statement gave latest statistics on existing and potential stocks of substitute fuel to show that, with federal aid in cooperation, every normal demand could be met.

At the white house it was explained that the emergency program for distribution did not contemplate the use of government agencies beyond the point of assuring transportation to the state borders. The problem of getting the fuel to the home and factory and of rationing the individual consumer, if that became necessary, would be left to state authorities.

FORMAL STATEMENT BY COMMISSION.
Washington, August 24.—Stoppage of anthracite mining would constitute a public emergency, the coal commission said today in a formal statement, requiring the full cooperation of consumers with soft coal operators and all agencies of distribution, with all possible aid through executive action by federal and state government.

The commission's statement follows: "In connection with the government's preparedness measures which have the direct purpose to make up with bituminous coal any possible anthracite shortage, the United States coal commission makes public its analysis of official statistics regarding the anthracite supply."

"In the first place, the anthracite mines to date have maintained a high rate of shipment that by September 1, over 25,000,000 net tons of domestic sizes of anthracite will be in the possession of the consumers or dealers. This supply, representing shipments from April 1 to August 31, is over seven million tons more than was distributed by December 31 last year and only about 17,000,000 less than the average supply on December 31 of the three years previous to the strike year."

"Any complete stoppage of anthracite mining on September 1 would thus involve a deficit of 17,000,000 tons of domestic sizes of anthracite before the end of December, or a million tons a week. Indeed, with the present high rate of shipments continuing through this month, the supply on hand would be nearly two and a half million tons above the average on September 1, and a real deficit would not exist until after two weeks of shut down. To that degree is the anthracite consuming territory prepared to face the threatened strike."

Soft Coal As Substitute.
However, the September 1 stocks of household fuel are not equally distributed and the many households without any anthracite would be forced to prepare winter by accepting some substitute.

"While, as was true last winter, some by-products and bee-hive coke will be available, perhaps at a rate of from 100,000 to 200,000 tons a week, the principal substitute must be bituminous coal."

"To sum up the situation: In the event of an anthracite strike, a household fuel emergency could exist in the eastern United States which the bituminous operators believe could be promptly met by utilizing the excess mine capacity of the bituminous fields normally shipping steam coal to New England, Canada and the Atlantic seaboard. The united efforts of soft coal operators, railroad executives and the interstate commerce commission would probably be in the line of starting this movement of coal before the period of maximum freight movement, which the railroads are reported to be in excellent condition to handle."

Stoppage of Anthracite Mining.
Stoppage of anthracite mining would be a public emergency to meet which would require the full cooperation of the consumers with the soft coal operators and all the agencies of distribution, with all possible aid through executive action by federal and state governments. If those who now control the mining and distribution of anthracite are to continue to think only of their own demands and not at all of the public's demand for coal, the coal commission feels that every measure should be taken to supply the domestic fuel needed in the homes of the great mass of the consumers and especially of the industrial workers throughout the east."

Thinks Stoppage Improbable.
A careful review of the situation, Chairman John Hays Hammond said, led the commission to still cling to its belief that the stoppage of anthracite production would not be allowed to occur because of the vital interests of both miners and operators which would be immediately injured. On the other hand, he said, the government did not feel that the public interest would be served through another attempt on its part to intervene in the deadlock."

Chairman Hammond and other members of the commission said their hope in an eleventh hour settlement was based solely upon the view that neither side could afford to stop production.

While there would necessarily be some isolated cases of suffering in the event of a shut-down in the coal fields, the commission believes no trouble will be met in supplying the fuel requirements of every section of the country.

WELSH ANTHRACITE SHIPPED TO BOSTON.
London, August 24.—A cargo of 15,000 tons of Welsh anthracite coal left Swansea yesterday for Boston. It is stated that the price was 68 shillings (approximately $15.44) per ton, including the freight charge, as compared with 60 shillings, which is said here to be the price of American anthracite on the spot.

The British department of overseas trade has issued a memorandum outlining the coal situation in the United States.

GOVERNOR CALLS SPECIAL SESSION
Continued from First Page.

of Georgia, do hereby convene the general assembly of the state in extraordinary session, to meet in their respective halls at the Capitol in the city of Atlanta, on the 7th day of November, 1933, at 10 o'clock, a. m. for the following objects, all of which are considered by the executive of sufficient importance to make the necessity for such extraordinary session:

To Reform Tax System.
"To reform the tax system of the state by proposing constitutional amendments relating thereto, by enacting general laws relating thereto, to repeal the tax equalization law, to propose constitutional amendments and enact general laws which will bring to the tax books intangible, invisible and other property now escaping taxation, and distribute the burden of taxation by placing a fair share upon those citizens enjoying large incomes who now pay practically no taxes, and provide practical and efficient means to establish uniformity of taxation by enforcing the tax laws."

"To enact laws authorizing the state board of education to purchase and distribute textbooks without cost to the pupils of the elementary grades of the common schools in the future, making such present appropriation that to end as the prospective state of the treasury will authorize."

"Given under my hand and the great seal of the state at the city of Atlanta, this 24th day of August, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-three."

CLIFFORD WALKER, Governor.

Twelve Beauties in Contest for "Miss America"

Photo by Matheson & Price, Staff Photographers.

Beauty Entrant Is Chosen To Twinkle on Broadway

MISS BLANCHARD PICKED BY SCHUBERT SCOUT

BY HERMAN S. HANCOCK.

"Miss Atlanta" was sought by The Constitution. "Miss Broadway" was sought by a representative of Schubert, famous New York theatrical producer. Miss Mary Blanchard, pretty, winsome 16-year-old entrant in the contest for the selection of "Miss Atlanta," was the selection of the famous Winter Garden producer. The selection of "Miss Atlanta" is yet unannounced.

It all happened when the judges of The Constitution contest announced the selection of the semi-final winners and, although Miss Blanchard was eliminated in the finals, she was chosen by Schubert for his new Winter Garden production and was made a flattering offer.

Training Required.
The representative explained that Schubert required training as well as beauty, and that the requirements for a theatrical performer differed in that respect from those required for the Atlantic City beauty pageant.

"I am of the opinion that Miss Blanchard is one of the most lovely girls who entered The Constitution beauty contest," said the representative. The judges of the Atlanta contest had a real job in the selection of the girl to represent Georgia.

A Southern Beauty.
"Miss Blanchard is one of the rarest combinations of southern beauty and esthetic accomplishment that I have seen on my tour of the south. I am highly pleased with the selection."

Long periods of study under the best southern dancers have been spent in preparation by Miss Blanchard. Del de Lane, one of the greatest dancers in the country, has been a personal friend of the Blanchard family, and has given personal supervision to her training.

The contract with Schubert will take Miss Blanchard to New York September 15, where she will enter at once upon the performance of her engagement.

Selection Is Compliment.
Her selection by one of America's largest and most famous producers is regarded by friends as one of the highest compliments which could have come to the youthful performer. She has appeared in many skits and dances and has won the approbation of many audiences in her short but significantly successful career. In going to New York she will have an opportunity to achieve her one desire, she said.

"I have always hoped that I might be given an opportunity to get a try-out in New York," said Miss Blanchard, "but I never really thought I would. This has come to me so unexpectedly that I hardly realize it. It seems like a big dream, but I hope that everything will be like I know it will. I know that I shall like my work, because that's what I have trained for all these—well, these many sixteen years."

Miss Blanchard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Blanchard, of the Cecil hotel. The family recently moved to Atlanta from Raleigh, N. C. Miss Blanchard will accompany her daughter to New York as chaperone, she said.

LEGION HOSPITAL NAMED FOR HARDING

New York, August 24.—The American Legion hospital for tubercular veterans at Big Tupper Lake, New York, is to be named the Warren Gamaliel Harding memorial, in honor of the late president, it was announced today.

Why the Weather?

DR. CHARLES F. BROOKS.

Secretary American Meteorological Society, Discusses Sweating Cellars.

Cellars are proverbially damp in summer, and damper because the constantly urged remedy, "Keep the cellar windows open" is adhered to. The rule should read "Keep the cellar windows open when the outdoor air is dry, but keep them closed when humidity is high."

The condensation on cellar walls and cold water pipes is owing to their coolness. The walls have the temperature of the ground at moderate depths, and that temperature is about the average annual temperature of the region in which the building is located. Thus, roughly, taking April air temperatures as guides, the wall temperature is from 40 to 45 degrees from northern Minnesota, Ontario, Quebec, northern New York, through northern New England; 45 to 50 degrees from South Dakota to southern New England; 50 to 55 degrees from Nebraska and Kansas to the middle Atlantic coast; 55 to 60 from southern Kansas to Virginia; 60 to 65 from northern Texas to the Carolinas, and above 65 degrees from the southern half of Texas to southern Georgia and Florida. Cold water pipes have about the same temperature, because they enter the cellar from the ground.

Outdoor air often has so much moisture that its dewpoint is above the temperature of the walls. Therefore, while circulating through the cellar the vapor is chilled and condenses upon the cool surfaces, leaving them damper than before. Thus the better the circulation the damper the cellar.

The obvious remedy for sweating cellars is to open their windows only when the dewpoint of the outdoor air is lower than the temperature of the cellar walls. The dewpoint may be found by stirring with a thermometer a mixture of tepid water and ice in a tin cup and reading the temperature when dew forms on the outside of the cup. As a rule, dew with northerly winds, and especially the nights, have dry cool air which readily falls into cellars to displace the warmer moist air.

(All rights reserved.)

TODAY'S SAFETY TALK

Prepared by the National Safety Council.

Stormy Weather Hazards

Stormy weather calls for additional precautions on the part of both the driver and the pedestrian. The pedestrian is apt to pull his hat down over his face or hold his umbrella down and dash across the street without watching where he is going. The driver should observe the following precautions:

Keep the windshield clear. Equip the car with a mechanical cleaner to keep rain and snow from accumulating or apply a mixture of equal parts of glycerine and alcohol.

Drive slowly. There is always the danger of skidding on slippery pavements as well as the danger of colliding with another vehicle at turns or through sudden stops.

Always put on the chains in wet weather.

Watch out for pedestrians, especially those carrying umbrellas.

CHILDREN IN HEALTH SCHOOL MEET TODAY

This afternoon at 3 o'clock in assembly room No. 2, chamber of commerce, a class of 75 children will present before an audience of parents and children a program of singing, dancing, breathing, speaking and drilling, all teaching health, under the direction of Robert Bryan Harrison and six assistants of the kindergarten of health for children. The kindergarten is free to mothers and children.

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch the flabby, nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

S.S.S. Makes You Feel Like Yourself Again

Watch Sunday Papers

"GREATER MOVIE SEASON"

HOWARD - RIALTO

The Standard Newspaper.
CLARK HOWELL.
Editor and General Manager.
Clark Howell, Jr., Business Manager.

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.
Telephone Main 5000.

ATLANTA, GA., AUGUST 25, 1923.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
By Carrier or Mail.
Daily and 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Daily ... $2.00 $5.00 $10.00 $20.00
By Mail Only.
Daily ... 10c 30c 60c 1.00 1.75 3.00
Single Copies—Daily, 6c. Sunday, 10c.

J. R. HOLLIDAY, Constitution Building, advertising manager for all territories outside of Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had. Holdings' News Stand, Broadway and Forty-second street (Times building corner), Schmitt News Stand at Uggan Park, and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; the publisher is not responsible for payments unless received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use of publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein.

CURSING OR BLESSING?

Curse is the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the Lord. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is. —Jeremiah 17:5, 7.

A NATIONAL CURSE.

The Constitution presents today on this page a summary of the report to be submitted to the American Bar association by the special committee appointed to study and report upon the question of law enforcement in the United States.

This committee is headed by Hon. Charles S. Whitman, former governor of New York, and among its members are some of the most prominent attorneys in the United States.

The committee has had the co-operation of leading lawyers the country over, and its report is based upon an investigation that covers every state in the union and upon reports and suggestions submitted by representative lawyers throughout the country.

The committee's report is a fearful indictment against the civilization of this country, the worst feature of it being the presentation of facts and figures irrefutably demonstrating the truth of the conclusion that this country is far behind the leading countries of Europe in the matter of law enforcement, and that it is far ahead of any European country in the number of crimes committed in proportion to population.

The committee attributes this largely to "the apathy and indifference of the American people," and it reaches the conclusion that the law and enforcement system of this country "lacks in the three great essentials—CELEBRITY, CERTAINTY and FINALITY."

This conclusion is fully warranted, and the better thought of the people of this country cannot be more wisely directed than to bringing about such changes as will guarantee, first, promptness in the trial of cases, secondly, certainty in the fixing of punishment for crime, and, thirdly, in making verdicts final instead of having them repeatedly subjected to revision with the chance of conviction in cases of proven crime growing less each time, of even where conviction is final, of having criminals escape confinement or being freed by too liberal application of executive clemency.

A first conviction in this country too often means little or nothing.

No sooner is a conviction obtained than an application for a new trial is made, and where that fails the next resort is to appeal from one court to another; and where all these fail the next step is to appear before a pardon board, or an appeal for executive clemency, and through the whole process the criminal resorts to a thousand and one technicalities offered by the law to prevent rather than to assure punishment for crime.

The present system of our administration in this country needs fundamental revision along the line suggested in the report of this special committee of the American Bar association, which should be given the widest publicity with the hope that it will have a tendency to awaken the American people from the lethargy in which they have fallen in this respect.

Slackness in the administration of justice is one of the curses of this country.

MANGET'S OFFER.

The proposal of John A. Manget, well-known Atlanta, to give prizes to the parent-teacher associations of the wards bringing out the largest number of votes, in proportion to registration, in the forthcoming park bond election, is unique, and it shows the deep interest the leading business men of Atlanta are taking in this forward-looking movement. It accentuates further the one real danger that faces the proponents of the bond issue for park purposes—that of loss by default, through a failure to get a majority of the registered vote of the city to the polls at that election. That is the fight that must be made. The election will not be legal, and this great opportunity to acquire an adequate parking system for the city will be lost, even if every vote cast is in favor of the bond issue, unless a majority of the registered voters of Atlanta go to the polls on September 5, and register an elector's ballot one way or the other.

If this proposed bond issue is lost Atlanta will lose a rare opportunity. The most appealing objective before the people of Atlanta today is a complete system of ward parks and playgrounds revolving around a great central park as a nucleus.

The proposed bond issue will not only provide for this, in its fullest sense, reaching every ward in the city, but will create an investment that will be worth in actual dollars and cents five dollars for every dollar expended—and in less than ten years.

REGARD FOR LAW.

In the present-day disregard for the institutions of government, and irreverence for the law, so plainly evidenced by the mob spirit, it is interesting to turn back to many of the almost inspired utterances of Abraham Lincoln, the product of the mountains who became the sage of his day, and the leading American exponent of rigid obedience to the written code.

The quotation cited below is from one of his memorable speeches, and pictures a condition then similar to that which exists today in Georgia, except that conditions then were far more conducive to disorder and restlessness among the people than they are today, when the judiciary is the strongest arm of the government and entirely capable in its functioning to mete full and unchallenged justice to every offender. It follows:

"At what point shall we expect the approach of danger? By what means shall we fortify against it? Shall we expect some trans-Atlantic military giant to step the ocean and crush us at a blow? Never! . . .

"At what point, then, is the approach of danger to be expected? I answer, if it ever reaches us, it must spring up amongst us; it cannot come from abroad. If destruction be our lot, we must ourselves be its author and finisher. As a nation of free men we must live through all time or die by suicide.

"I hope I am over wary; but if I am not, there is even now something of evil omen among us. I mean the increasing disregard for law which pervades the country—the growing disposition to substitute wild and furious passions in lieu of the sober judgment of courts, and the worse than savage mobs for the executive ministers of justice. . . .

"The answer is simple. 'Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well-wisher of the republic, swear by the blood of the revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others. . . .

"Reference for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lips of all those who are born here; let it be taught in the schools, in seminaries and in colleges; let it be written in primers, in spelling books and in almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpits, proclaimed in legislative halls and enforced in courts of justice. And, in short, let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars."

"Here in Georgia," writes a prominent business man of Atlanta in submitting the above quotation to The Constitution, "our dangers politically, socially and economically, are from within and not from without—too much destruction, too little construction."

That is largely true. The curse of politics lies over the state like a menacing cloud.

With a mania for making new counties that has swept the state for several years the safeguards of true democratic faith have been swept away by an undemocratic system of representation, resulting first in an unwieldy legislature, and then in a spirit of bolshevism from which the secular mob spirit incubates and gets its comfort.

There is no mistaking the true facts, and he is an enemy to civilization who will not state them frankly and fearlessly, and seek by orderly processes to eradicate the mob spirit from Georgia.

Another election is rolling around. There is sufficient upstanding, outstanding law-abiding public thought in Georgia if aroused to action, to put a stop not only to the law breaker who rides the highways at night but to all who go into public office to give him protection.

This thing, in all of its social and moral and political ramifications, must come to a stop. Either the civilization of Georgia must rule, or anarchy.

The Philadelphia Record says that "when a man who has been peddling fireworks promises to peddle only materials for fire, it is safer."

Instead of sending gold to Germany, Russia might exchange some of it for bread for the hungry at home.

Just From Georgia
BY FRANK L. STANTON

Says Brother Williams.
Heaven ain't built with hammers and nails, but you got to do some good carpentering—trimming work on yourself—before dey lets you in dar.

Don't stop hal-halure too soon. Wait till you sure you got de goods.

Nobody tells you to git out de wilderness now. Dey done cut down an' suved up de wilderness to make 'partment houses.

'Bout time we learns how to live it's time to pack up an' say "Good-by, honey, I'm a-gwine."

Down Dixie Way.
When northern winds, on frosty wing, Would chill the sheltered fold, We'll get a mockingbird to sing And charm away the cold!

For all the birds
Of sweetest song
I Dixie sing
The whole year long.

Old Winter ever dreams of May
Where Dixie fields we roam,
Why should he blow the birds away
From the loved nests of home?

So, still the birds
Of southern song
In Dixie, sing
The whole year long!

Oldest Working Journalist.
Writing of the oldest working journalist, the Argonaut says:

"Melle Saint Prix, who recently celebrated his 103rd birthday, is said to be the oldest living practicing journalist in the world. He still writes weekly articles under the nom de plume of Jean Damably for a French provincial newspaper. He lives near Paris with his old valet, who has been with him 37 years. Saint Prix, who started his long life as a painter, went into newspaper work when he was 95 years old. He was an intimate of Dumas and Alfred de Musset and was often a painting companion of Corot. Eighteen years of his life were spent in the Near East, in Egypt, Libya and Syria, where he hunted packers and tigers. He has lived through three revolutions and many wars."

Of Peace and Plenty.
I.
Harvest time is saying—
To Peace and Plenty led:
"Takes me to spread the table,
But you must make the bread."

II.
"When Summer winds are singing
Of harvest homecoming,
"Tis you must make the furrow Lead to the gates of home."

III.
So sing the winds of Summer,
With harvest tables spread:
"Tis I that eat ever answers
Your prayer for daily bread."

Looks That Way.
According to the Altamont Times "there are lots of motorists who apparently think the signs, 'Stop, Look, Listen' are placed at the railroad crossings for engineers to read."

A Revival Refrain.
I grieve to de glory land
Wif de saints an' de angels stan,
But I don't want a crown
For to tote around.

For to shade place
For to lay me down—
I'll be done wid de workin' day!

Says the Village Deacon.
The Lord is good to folks that are good to themselves and their neighbors; but some folks think it's too much trouble to meet Providence halfway.

Confession of a Prominent Member of the Legislature

Editor Constitution: I did not go to Atlanta representing Ben Hill county in the legislature presuming to know it all and to save the state from ruin. All my life I have been very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

When I was first elected I was a young man, and I was very busy trying to make a living, but from the day I have conducted my affairs during the past three years I have been a member of the legislature.

Striking Report of the Crime Committee To Meeting of American Bar Association

A special committee appointed by the American Bar association will present its first complete survey of crime conditions in America at the meeting of the association in Minneapolis next week, August 29, 30, 31.

Personnel of the committee. The chairman of this committee, Hon. Charles S. Whitman, former governor of New York; Judge Marcus Kavanagh, of Chicago, and Wade H. Ellis, of Washington, D. C., spent some time in England and France this spring studying the physical application of the criminal laws in order to understand the crime conditions of the two countries as a basis of comparison with conditions in this country.

The members of the committee are Charles W. Farnham, of St. Paul, and Mrs. Annette Abbott Adams, of San Francisco, have been active obtaining information to lay before the bar association.

The important recommendation made by this committee prescribes a permanent commission of the American Bar association to formulate a standard code of criminal procedure for all the states of the union.

Findings of Committee on Law Enforcement.

Behind every defect in the enforcement of laws, more dangerous than any other factor in accounting for the number of crimes committed in this country, is the apathy and indifference of the American people.

While the general population of the United States for the years 1910 until 1922 increased 14.9 per cent, the criminal population increased 16.6.

The largest proportion of the criminal increase was found in crimes accompanied with violence.

There exists in nearly every state of the union a lack of vigorous enforcement of the criminal laws.

The means provided in the United States for coping with crime and criminals are today neither adequate nor efficient.

The criminal situation in the United States, so far as crimes of violence are concerned, is worse than in any other civilized country.

The committee has contented itself with reporting first, the situation of law enforcement in this country, second, the situation in two other countries for the purpose of measurement or comparison, third, the chief respects in which the machinery of law enforcement in England and France differs from our own together with the immediate results of this difference.

Lastly, by reason of this difference, the system in the United States lacks in the three great essentials for law enforcement: celebrity, certainty and finality.

This lack, together with general public indifference to the situation, accounts in large measure for the want of respect for the law in this country and the failure of its enforcement.

Crime in England.
Some interesting statistical facts regarding the crime situation in London, Paris and New York were announced by the committee in its report to the gathering in Minneapolis.

1. There were 17 murders in London last year, and not one of these crimes was unsolved.

2. It is estimated 7,850 murders were committed in the United States last year. During 1922 there were 280 murders in New York and 137 in Chicago. In the same year throughout all England and Wales there were 63 murders.

In its report the committee says: "How England Enforces Law."

"We learned that the prison population in England has been steadily decreasing since 1876, the latter period marking about the time when the simplification of the English criminal procedural laws began to be effective."

"One of the striking reasons for this is the fact that it has been made possible for anyone sentenced to a term to obtain extension of time for its payment at the discretion of the magistrate and a defendant may even pay his fine in installments."

Basically, the committee finds that the speedy trials given the criminals are largely responsible for the low crime rate in Great Britain.

The continual appearance of cases and reversals by the upper courts are practically unknown to English justice.

The Crime Situation in France.
In 1919, the year statistics were last published in France, figures show that there occurred in all that country 588 murders. In 48 cities of the United States last year, representing every section of the country, but omitting many cities and towns from which figures could not be obtained, there occurred 1,562 murders. These cities contain about 21,000,000, or a little over one-fifth of our population and fairly typify the rest of the country.

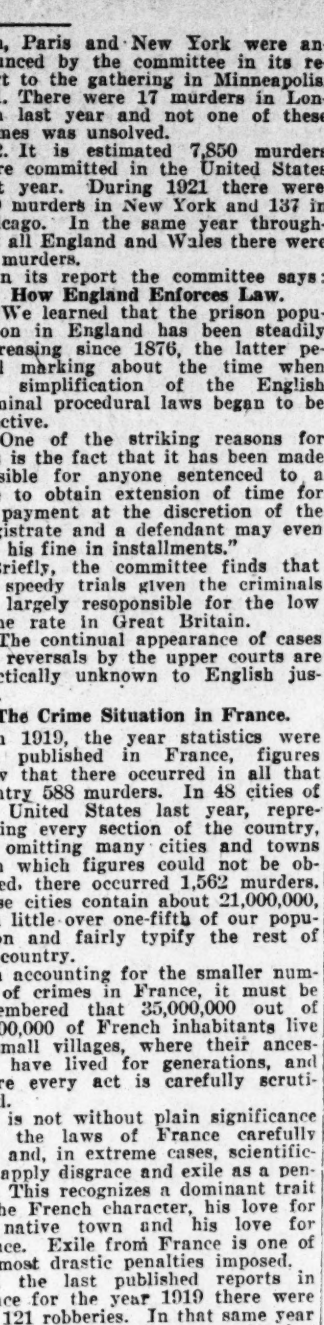

In accounting for the smaller number of crimes in France, it must be remembered that 35,000,000 out of 40,000,000 of French inhabitants live in small villages, where their ancestors have lived for generations, and where every act is carefully scrutinized.

It is not without plain significance that the laws of France carefully plan and, in extreme cases, scientifically apply disgrace and exile as a penalty. This recognizes a dominant trait in the French character, his love for his native town and his love for France. Exile from France is one of the most drastic penalties imposed.

In the last published reports in France for the year 1919 there were only 121 robberies. In that same year San Francisco had 258 robberies, Washington 323, Chicago 1,862, Louisville 241, St. Louis 1,087, and New York 1,427.

Only the belief that nothing can be accomplished without a full realization of the situation in the American mind impels the committee to present the figures and statistics of this association and the striking contrast as between the situation relative to crime in America and in these two countries of Europe.

All for This---

Solicitor Dean Warmly Approves Editorial on "The Whipping Hyenas"

Editor Constitution: I want to commend your editorial under the caption "The Whipping Hyenas."

It does seem that in all good conscience the great state of Georgia has suffered enough "public scorn" by acts of open lawlessness.

Representative government ceases when outside influences are substituted for constituted authority.

Must the constitution of Georgia, the courts, the juries and the fealty of an oath, be outmatched by outside opinions and influences? Must the liberties and the rights that came to us by the blood of our revolutionary ancestors give way to the hip-pocket court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

It has been said, first, corruption, then greed, vice, corruption, and last barbarism. Are these coming in orderly succession?

The press of the state can at least bring about a healthy public opinion, then, the twelve windows of the court, the whistle of the night hawk, the crack of the rifle and the clatter of horses' hoofs?

Questions and Answers

Any reader may obtain a personal reply to any answerable question of fact or information by writing to Washington Bureau, Atlanta Constitution, 1322 New York avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., enclosing 2 cents in stamps. Legal, medical and marital advice can not be given, nor can extended research be undertaken. Unsigned letters can not be answered. All letters are confidential.

Q—Describe the confederate monument which is to be made of Stone Mountain, near Atlanta, Ga.
A—Stone Mountain is 16 miles from Atlanta, is an isolated mass of granite, 7 miles in circumference and 1 mile in height. The cliff face is 800 feet high and 1,500 in breadth. Upon 700 feet of this space a moving army of confederate soldiers is to be carved. Notable groups will be those of Davis, Lee, Wheeler, etc. Under the central group a great hall is to be excavated in the cliff with 13 massive columns in its portico, twelve windows, the outer door decorated with the arms of Georgia. The auditorium will be almost limitless. The entire site is a gift from Samuel Holt Venable, the owner of the mountain, to the United Daughters of the Confederacy, who are to dedicate this unrivaled monument "to their heroic fathers."

Q—What is the significance of giving a teaset as an engagement present?
A—There is an old tradition of a lover who gave his sweetheart a teaset as an engagement present before he went on a long journey, and told her that he would be back with the set. The set was a symbol of his return and the gift signifies faithfulness.

Q—How many ounces of brain has a person?
A—The average male has about 50 ounces of brain; the average female 44 ounces.

Q—How can one get rid of green lice at the roots of natural hair?
A—The best method is to use a mixture of air-slaked lime and tobacco dust. The dirt should be removed with care not to injure the roots, and the mixture applied directly to them. The dirt should then be replaced with equal precaution.

Q—Why is the Dead Sea called dead?
A—Because it contains no life whatever, except a few microbes. Sea fish placed in it soon die. The water contains, at a depth of 1,000 feet, 27 per cent of solid substances. Chloride of magnesium gives the water a bitter taste, chloride of calcium an oily appearance and feeling. There is no outlet to this sea.

Q—Who was called the Father of the Constitution?
A—James Madison.

Q—Who was called the "Swamp Fox"?
A—General Francis Marion.

Q—Who was "Black Patti"?
A—Sissieretta Jones, a colored woman, who first came prominent as a singer about 1890. She sang in all the principal cities of Europe, and toured with her own company, for 19 years, appearing in principal cities of the United States, the West Indies and Central America.

Q—What are the swiftest birds?
A—Probably the large swifts of Central America.

Q—When was the white house built and which president first occupied it?
The cornerstone was laid in 1792. It was occupied in 1800 by President John Adams.

Q—Who was the Cincinnati of the West?
A—Byron gave this name to George Washington. It has also been applied to William Henry Harrison.

Q—What does the word "verbi" mean, and from what was it derived?
A—Derived from the Latin word "verbum," meaning "word." Hence "verbi" meaning "word."

Q—Ben Todd's working rules seem to be that whatever is, is wrong, so that it doesn't matter the least bit whether you take a lunch before retiring or go to bed with your stomach empty. The afternoon ride, in open horse-drawn carriages to Central park, is just now an event. The quick-stepping cob horse is a symbol of things to come.

While the ladies drive, the frock-coated gentleman who breathes affluence from silk hat to lacquered shoes, strolls along the sun-dappled park avenue, has trees, Nursemaids, who might well grace a beauty show, read French novels along the benches.

A feature of Park avenue is the gorgeous trappings of door flunkies and carriage starters. Some are reminiscent of the days when Primrose and West invaders stepped down the main street in gold hats and red coats.

At the most fashionable club there are older and younger couples, some in valetudinarian ease to relieve twinges of gout. Those who are distinguished by cut have a certain pride in their affluence. Park avenue has not yet been trespassed by the nouveau riche. Fifth avenue has its shoe-polished kings, but Park is "unspoiled."

The magnificent cafes that hide in signless obscurity in the great apartment houses are filled at the dinner hour with the rich and independent. Men who are known as crack shots, yachtsmen and all-around sportsmen.

INTEREST GROWING IN PARK CAMPAIGN

Interest is increasing in the coming election for the $2,000,000 bond issue for Central park and other municipal playgrounds, as is evidenced, it was stated, by the number of indorsements that have been pouring into the office of the campaign committee during the past few days. Among the letters of indorsement are documents from leading citizens, labor unions and civic organizations, offering their influence and whatever help that may be given in furthering the interests of the proposed park.

A letter from Business Agent C. B. Keeling, of the Journeyman Barbers, vigorously indorsed the park proposal, and proffered the aid of that body in whatever way that would be most effective.

Another letter came from Charles A. Bowen, well-known insurance man of the city, who also pledged his influence and cooperation in the campaign now being waged for the park bonds.

The offer of a prize to be given the Parent-Teachers' associations in the three wards bringing out the greatest percentage of their voters on the day of election, has also created much interest, and there is said to be a spirit of rivalry among the children of the respective city wards that is expected to produce great results.

The prizes were offered by John A. Manget, secretary of the real estate board, and are to be given to the three wards bringing out the greatest percentage of their registered voters, $100 in gold for the ward inducing the highest percentage of its registration to vote on September 5, election day; $75 to the second and $50 to the third. The money will be turned over to the Parent-Teachers' associations in the winning wards, to be used for park and playground purposes, or to be put to whatever other use the organizations may see fit.

"Much interest has been aroused by the Manget prizes," stated Levi W. Reeves, secretary of the real estate board, and manager of the park campaign, "and we are receiving many inquiries every day as to just how the prizes will be given. It must be understood that the prizes are not for the ward getting out the greatest number of voters, but the highest percentage of the voters on the registration books."

She Did.

The Mistress—Oh, Lindy! Didn't I tell you to notice when the milk was boiling over?

The Maid (very green)—Sure, ma'am, I did; it was half-past 11.

PIANOS FOR RENT

Rent Credited on Future Purchase
PHILLIPS & CREW
PIANO COMPANY
Steinway Representative
181 Peachtree

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic

For Pale, Delicate Women and Children. 60c

Mrs. Kella Houser Tells How Cuticura Healed Eruptions

"My trouble began with itching and later my face and scalp broke out in blisters which developed into large, sore eruptions. The skin was red and inflamed, and itched and burned so badly that I could not sleep. My face was disfigured, and my hair became dry and fell out in handfuls. The trouble lasted for five years. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I purchased more and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Kella Houser, R. 2 Benham, Virginia.

Use Cuticura for every-day toilet purposes. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum.

Sample Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 18, Mass." Write: Soap, 5c; Ointment, 10c; Talcum, 25c.

Cuticura Soap shaves without razor.

Quality Merchandise at Correct Prices

There never was a truer saying than "the quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten."

In buying diamonds, Platinum and Gold Jewelry, Sterling Silver, and similar lines, it is of the utmost importance that you deal with a reliable house where you are certain to get exactly what you think you are buying. You can doubtless buy cheaper goods but you cannot buy better goods.

Headquarters for Gifts That Last.

Maier & Berkele, Inc.

Diamond Merchants
Gold and Silversmiths
31 Whitehall Street
Established 1887

Gifts That Last

Flood Refugees Back to Homes; Loss Is $600,000

Pueblo, Col., August 24.—Farmers in the path of the Apishapa river flood of Wednesday night and Thursday are moving back to their devastated homes of crops were ruined and many farmers lost all their livestock. Most of the homes remain intact.

Nearly all bridges over the Apishapa were entirely demolished by the unprecedented flood in that stream and so depleted are funds of the district from repairing former disasters that months may be required to re-establish the spans.

Railroad communication has been entirely restored at a cost of approximately $25,000, it was said. Telephone lines are fast being replaced to all districts and every main line was re-established early Friday.

Total damage it is believed will not exceed $600,000.

FIGHT CONSOLIDATION OF ALABAMA CITIES

Brandon, Ala., August 24.—(Special.)—The consolidation of Phenix City and Girard and the appointment of Governor W. W. Kelley, one of the five commissioners of the new city is not entirely satisfactory to the citizens of the two municipalities, according to J. W. Kelley, prominent Girard attorney, who announced Friday that the legality of the consolidation laws would be tested in the courts.

Mr. Kelley declares that he is the spokesman for about fifty citizens of the two towns and states that he has been doing only what had been done all along.

Council took the matter up and not only exonerated the mayor, but commended his administration. Kelley, however, is leaving Saturday for Montgomery for a conference with Mr. Rushton and in the meantime citizens of the two towns are following with exceeding interest the developments in the test.

Freight Is Wrecked.

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Crashing headlong into a freight train loaded with brick, a switch engine of the Central of Georgia railroad turned over a heavy freight car at Ninth avenue and Front street this morning and delayed passenger service over the track which runs from Columbus to Andalusia, Ala., for some two or three hours.

The engineer of the switch engine declared he was unable to see the long line of freight cars which was pushed by a "dummy" engine. The damage was reported as comparatively slight. No one was injured.

Large Still Destroyed.

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Federal and county officers on Thursday destroyed a 400-gallon capacity still in Harris county north of Columbus. Eight fermenters were confiscated and 400 gallons of beer and twenty gallons of whisky were destroyed. Three men were arrested.

May Air Charges.

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Unless the county commissioners make public the charges brought by the six resigned county policemen against their chief, Mitch Huling, who was exonerated by the commission last week, Johnson E. Owens, who is acting as spokesman for the former policemen, declares he will air the entire proceedings in the local press.

Owens declared Friday morning that he had written chairman Charles M. Woolfolk requesting a copy of the money at the recent hearing, and had as yet received no reply. "If Mr. Woolfolk fails to do this, we will get together and give out the facts in the charges, as we are determined that the public shall know them," Mr. Owens states.

Governor Is Invited.

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Gov. W. W. Kelley, of Alabama, and the lieutenant governor, C. S. McDowell, will be guests of the Columbus Kiwanis club at an early meeting, it was announced Friday.

The two Alabama officials have been asked to visit the club in order that the Kiwanians may express their cooperation in the success of the consolidation of the two Alabama cities, Phenix City and Girard.

Miss Porter Dies.

Columbus, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Miss Elizabeth Porter, age 77, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. P. Tucker, at Seale, Ala., Friday morning at 10 o'clock after an illness of general debility of the past three years.

Miss Porter was born in Wilkeson county, Georgia, September 28, 1846, moving to Russell county a few years ago. She was the daughter of the late Elder J. B. Porter, who for many years was pastor of the Bethel Primitive Baptist church in Phenix City. Surviving Miss Porter are two brothers and one sister. Interment will take place at the family burying ground near Seale Saturday morning.

So far this year Superior, Wis., has had more divorces than marriages.

EFFORT IS MADE TO OUSP MAYOR

Augusta, Ga., August 24.—An application for issuance of a writ of quo warranto where it is sought to oust Mayor Julian M. Smith from office because of alleged illegal trading by him with the city through Smith Brothers company, of which concern he is president, was signed by Judge A. L. Franklin, of superior court here today, and the mayor was ordered to show cause before Judge Franklin on August 31 why his office should not be declared vacant.

The proceeding follows one of the most startling municipal sensations Augusta has experienced. The city has let a number of paving contracts. The contractors were approached by cement dealers who sought to equip them with the cement they would need. They declined to buy.

It developed that Clem B. Castleberry, a city councilman, had rented a warehouse and had sought a license as a dealer in building material and the paving contractors were waiting to buy from the councilman.

The builders supply people made inquiry in council if it was lawful for councilmen to engage in such trade with the city. The city attorney replied "No."

Three days later Mayor Smith called the paving committee together and at his request they cancelled a contract which his firm had for supplying paving resurfacing material to the city.

A storm broke when news of this became public. The real estate board took the matter up. Evidence was secured which was accepted by the board. The mayor's firm of wholesale grocers had been trading with the city since he had been in office.

Mayor Smith made an attempt to conceal this and asked the fullest investigation. In a statement before the really broke he contended that he had been doing only what had been done all along.

Council took the matter up and not only exonerated the mayor, but commended his administration. Kelley, however, is leaving Saturday for Montgomery for a conference with Mr. Rushton and in the meantime citizens of the two towns are following with exceeding interest the developments in the test.

Scared by Dream, Reveals Slaying Of His Playmate

Providence, R. I., August 24.—Eight-year-old Antonio Testa of this city saw "the shadow" of Michael Rossi, aged nine, in a dream last night and told his mother that "Henri Rossi," 13 years old, had shot Lurgio and buried him in a hole just over the Providence line in the town of Johnston on Tuesday afternoon. Police, hurrying to the spot with the two former playmates of Lurgio, found the body of the boy. He had been reported by his parents as missing since Tuesday.

Rossi, in a statement to the police, admitted the shooting, and said he did not know the double-barreled shotgun, left by his father in a shack on Hedley street, Johnston, was loaded. In his statement, he said, according to the police: "We were playing and Mikie stood in the doorway. I pulled the trigger and it went off. It hit him in the left breast and he fell over. Then I was afraid my father would beat me for having kids around the shack, so we buried him."

The Testa boy said young Rossi made him promise not to tell. He kept the secret until he was awakened by a dream last night and then told his mother.

PLAN BRIDGE SURVEY

Proposed Structure to Span Altamaha River.

Lyons, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—State Engineers Slack and McWhorter will be in Lyons the last of this week to make arrangements for the survey preparatory to beginning construction of a concrete bridge across the Altamaha river beginning at some point in the southern part of Toombs county.

Under present plans the bridge will cross the river at Piney Bluff and will form an important part of the new Ridge route or Greenville-Jacksonville highway.

The Georgia link of this highway will begin at Augusta, pass through Louisville, Swainsboro, Lyons, Baxley, Alma, Waycross and on to Jacksonville.

The construction of this bridge and completion of the highway connecting Lyons and Swainsboro will practically complete the Ridge route which as at present mapped will be a nearer, a higher and drier route to Jacksonville.

COVINGTON IS SILENT ON POLITICAL PLANS

Moultrie, Ga., August 23.—Back home from Atlanta, where he was one of Colquitt's representatives in the legislature, J. W. A. Covington, declined to say whether or not he would make the race for congress from the second district next year in opposition to Judge Frank Earl. He did say, however, that he was being urged to enter the contest.

It also is probable that Judge Eve, of Tifton; Judge E. E. Cox, of Milledgeville, and Dennis Fleming, of Albany, will run.

Judge Covington opposed Judge Park in 1913 when the latter was first elected and Judge Cox sought to get his seat in the campaign of 1910.

The Camilla jurist has practically announced his candidacy for the 1924 race and Judge Park has also let it be known that he would run. Judge Covington said that it was yet too early to reach a decision.

COMMUNITY KITCHEN IS PLANNED BY SCHOOL

Jeffersonville, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Danville High school is planning to put in a community kitchen which will be taught by Mrs. Katharine Carwell, home demonstrator of Twiggs county, it has been learned here.

The Twiggs High school at Jeffersonville already has a community kitchen, and the plans to that effect at Danville are in line with the efforts of Mrs. Carwell and Commissioner Fitzpatrick to improve the schools of the county.

The teachers for the Danville school have been selected. Mrs. Julia Kithens was selected principal, with Miss Corinne Womble, Miss Smith and Miss Genevieve Williams as her assistants.

"Dauber does some very realistic work, doesn't he?" said one artist to another. "So much so," replied the other, "that those apples he painted six weeks ago are now said by the critics to be rotten."—Toronto Telegram.

Confederate Veterans to Hear Old-Time Songs at Reunion

Rome Committee Announces Plans Well Under Way for Convocation September 12-14.

BY THOMAS J. BRYSON, Constitution Bureau, Masonic Temple Annex.

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Songs and recitations that were popular just before and during the Civil war will feature an informal reception which will be held for Confederate veterans who attend the state reunion which opens September 12.

The reception which will be given on the night of September 11 will be held at the auditorium and will be an altogether informal affair.

The veterans again will hear patriotic speeches which boys and girls spoke at commencement during the stirring days just before the war. The veterans themselves will sing once more the marching songs and campfire ballads of sixty years ago.

Preparations for the reunion are well under way. It developed at a meeting late this afternoon of the executive committee which has arranged the city for funds are making satisfactory progress. They expect to secure the necessary money without difficulty.

More Homes Needed. Members of the local chapter U. D. C. will be making a canvass for homes in which to house the visitors. The work will not require more than two days, it is said.

The general headquarters of the reunion will be at the Broad Baptist church next Sunday. Mr. Wray is known as "the south's biggest Baptist," standing over six feet and weighing more than 300 pounds.

Boats Fluvier Sales. Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—The Rome curb market is boosting fluvier sales in Floyd county.

This morning a farmer who lives near Armuchee appeared at the market, having been a regular vendor since the market was started some three months ago. In the beginning he came in a buggy alongside which the "one-horse chaise" would have looked as if it had just left the factory.

This morning he was driving one of the very latest creations—bought, he says, with money he has made selling iron products at the market. He opined that the curb market is the greatest institution Rome has ever known.

In his, however, he differs from another farmer who has been selling regularly since the market began operations. In all that time, however, he has never been reconciled to the idea that he must pay 10 cents daily as his contribution toward defraying the expense of operating the market. He had sold almost $15 worth of produce this morning when he approached for his 10 cent fee, but complained bitterly at this tax.

"I don't see no reason why I've got to work hard to raise all this truck, bring it in here and stand around trying to sell it, and then give away some of the profit every time I come."

Tax Payments Slow.

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Romans are slower paying their taxes this year than ever before, according to city officials.

City taxes are due July 1, but there has been a custom here for a number of years that if 50 per cent of the amount due were paid promptly, the remainder was allowed to go over until October 1.

Now, however, almost two months after the first installment is due considerably less than one-half of the taxpayers of the city have paid even the first installment.

There is no penalty provided for failure to pay taxes except the costs in case suits are issued, which is seldom done. For this reason, it is pointed out, it is difficult to collect taxes when money is hard to get. And the interest charge of 7 per cent which the city imposes on taxes due means little, it is pointed out, as this is cheaper than the rate at which money to pay the taxes can be secured from a bank.

City officials are seriously considering the matter of a stiff penalty for those who fail to pay their taxes promptly and some such penalty will be provided shortly, it is expected, unless taxpayers show more willingness to pay voluntarily.

Grand Jury to Convene.

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—The Floyd county grand jury which convened during the July term of the superior court, will make its presentments on Saturday.

Judge Moses Wright, who is holding the court, is expected to be in town.

PEABODY

THE LEADING ENDOWED MOST RESPECTED AND MOST INFLUENTIAL IN THE COUNTRY.

Scholarship, Vocational training, Tuition in all grades and branches. Circulars mailed.

WHERE FATHER KNICKERBOCKER MADE HIS BOW

Historic old FIFTH AVENUE, scene of many a royal assemblage, still laden with that atmosphere of charm, Conservatism—exclusive—close to the centre of the Greatest City in the World—yet removed from the turmoil of traffic and with the Hotel Van Rensselaer, substantial as its name, to welcome you.

A home of real distinction. A family hotel with a reputation.

RATES

Single room with bath, $5.00 per day
Double room with bath, $8.00 per day
Two persons, $10.00 per day
The above rates are American Plan (includes breakfast) and are for a stay of two weeks or longer.

European Plan: Double room with bath, $3.00 per day

HOTEL VAN RENSSELAER

11th Street and 5th Ave. NEW YORK CITY

Watch Sunday Papers

"GREATER MOVIE SEASON"

HOWARD - RIALTO

Hearn Academy to Open.

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—

Lyman to Report.

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Paul Lyman, former Tech football star, who has been secured as director of athletics by Darlington school, will report Saturday and will begin immediately to get the athletic field in shape for the school activities which will begin early in September.

Darlington will have a much larger enrollment this year than ever before. Due to the fact that accommodations have been provided for boarding students and with the acquisition of the former Tech athletes to direct the athletic coach, Mr. Lyman will act as a valuable team will be turned out as instructor in several studies.

Water Carnival. Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Rome may have a water carnival among other forms of entertainment on Labor day.

Motor boat owners of the city have taken up the matter and are said to be unanimously in favor of the project. They have decided to hold a meeting within the next few days at which the matter will be definitely decided. Motorboat races and swimming matches are among the events being tentatively planned for the occasion.

Girl Is "Life-Saver."

Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Miss Virginia Penn, 17-year-old Rome girl, has been made a member of the national life-saving corps of the American Red Cross society. The honor is bestowed upon Miss Penn because of the ability she displayed in swimming contests held at the municipal swimming pool here recently under the supervision of a Red Cross swimming expert.

Revival to Begin. Rome, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Rev. J. W. Wray, home board evangelist of the Southern Baptist convention, will begin a series of revival meetings at the Broad Baptist church next Sunday. Mr. Wray is known as "the south's biggest Baptist," standing over six feet and weighing more than 300 pounds.

Funeral services for E. M. Sisk, 72, of 527 Capitol avenue, who died Friday at the residence after an illness of three weeks, will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. He had been in the employ of the Adair Realty and Trust company for the past 12 years as an accountant, and was a member of the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. Sisk is survived by his widow, a son, H. M. Sisk, a daughter, Mrs. C. B. and Samuel Sisk, and two grandchildren, Mary Frances and Donald Sisk. H. M. Patterson & Son in charge.

MACK HUNGERFORD HURT IN BALL GAME

Macon, Ga., August 24.—Mack Hungerford, 16, of Gray, Ga., Jones county, is in a critical condition at a local hospital as the result of being struck in the back with a pitched ball Thursday afternoon while playing in a game at Gray. He played several innings after being hit and upon reaching home collapsed. Doctors fear one of his kidneys is badly ruptured.

KEMP FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

Marietta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Eighty-two members of the Kemp family of Cobb county held a delightful reunion at Lost mountain on Wednesday. This is the fourth reunion of this well known and prosperous family, the events always being well attended and enjoyed.

Some think a third party is necessary but its certain we don't need one to keep up the prices of commodities.

Away up on some isolated hillside far from hotels, golfing bugs, motor fans, seaside resorts and busboys—this is where the rest begins.

MUSSOLINI ASKS FIUME DECISION

Rome, August 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Impatient over the delay in settling the status of Fiume, Premier Mussolini has asked the Belgrade government to be convened to reach a decision before September 1.

The newspapers today said that an official communiqué, however, stated that the word "ultimatum" used by the press was unwarranted. As to the character of the communication sent, the statement added:

"It was only an invitation addressed by Premier Mussolini to the mixed Italo-Yugo-Slav commission dealing with the Fiume question to conclude its work within the present month."

The newspapers say Mussolini proposed that Fiume be governed by a mixed Italo-Yugo-Slav commission and that this commission entrust the Italian government with the political administration and management of Fiume.

McCord Is Honor GUEST AT MARIETTA

Marietta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Joseph A. McCord, chairman of the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, was the honor guest and speaker at the luncheon given by the Marietta Civitans at the Golf club on Friday.

The club was lavishly decorated, a color scheme of yellow and white being used. The forty-five guests were seated at an immense U-shaped table down the center of which were masses of clematis and silver baskets of golden glow.

Those assisting in serving the delicious luncheon were Mrs. H. Grady Conway, wife of the Civitan's president; Mrs. Allan H. Conway, Mrs. Tom Reed, Sr., Mrs. Claude Grady and Mrs. James W. Legg. Mr. McCord made a talk on the money question.

QUALITY FIRST Efficient Service always

In keeping with the high quality of our products, Crown Gasoline and Polarine we insist upon and maintain the most efficient and courteous service to the public at our service stations.

This includes Free Water, Free Air and Free Crank Case Service.

Visit our service stations at Atlanta, Ga.

And nearly everywhere you go.

Better Stick To The Standard

Always buy at the station or the dealer with the Crown sign.

Ballwood Ave. and Means St. Buckhead.

Central Ave. and Mitchell St. S. Forsyth and Garnett.

Edgewood Ave. and Butler St. Edgewood and Highland Ave. Howell Mill Road.

James Street, No. 10. Perry St. and Georgia Ave. Whitehall and Humphries.

East Lake Drive and College Avenue, Decatur.

Court House Square, Decatur. Marietta and Simpson St. Park and Lee St.

Marietta and Euclid Ave. Spring and West Peachtree Place. West Peachtree and 10th St.

No. 514 Peachtree St. Ponce de Leon and No. Boulevard. Porter Place and Peachtree.

Walton St. Peachtree and Sixth St. Cascade and Gordon.

ATLANTA, GA.

And nearly everywhere you go.

Better Stick To The Standard

Always buy at the station or the dealer with the Crown sign.

Standard Oil Company

INCORPORATED

MISS STIRLING AND PALMER PLAY ADAIR-MAIDEN TODAY

General Public Invited To See Golf Celebrities In Action at East Lake

Palmer Plays T.J. White in Golf Bout at Asheville

One Round of Eighteen Holes Will Be Played, Starting at Three-Thirty O'Clock. Big Gallery Expected.

The chances are that the match between Miss Alex Stirling, paired with Bobby Jones, against Perry Adair and Stewart Maiden, this afternoon at East Lake, will draw the largest gallery that has ever followed a golf battle in Atlanta, although the record set recently at the Jones-Adair-Godchaux-Hutchinson affair will be mighty hard to beat.

Proceeds derived from the sale of tickets at $1 each will be turned into the fund raised for the banquet hall of the Atlanta Woman's club and the ladies who are in charge of arrangements say that the advance sale has been far better than they had hoped for, all of which indicates they are not likely to be disappointed in their desire to add at least a thousand dollars to the fund.

This figure is the minimum at which they are aiming. They believe there are more than a thousand golfers in this section who will appreciate the fact that they are being given the opportunity to see in action the most comprehensive foursome that has ever been arranged in the south, one that will compare favorably with any that has ever been played in any section of that matter.

This foursome will be comprised of three golfing champions and their instructor, the professional who has taken to the world more title-holders than any other golf teacher now living. The champions are Miss Stirling, Bobby Jones and Perry Adair and the man who made it possible for them to play is Stewart Maiden.

There's a real line-up. And the titles they hold are big affairs. Miss Stirling, after years of reigning as national, Canadian and southern champion, still retains the woman's crown for the metropolitan district, a championship she annexed recently over a very formidable field attracted from the scores of clubs in the vicinity of New York. Bobby Jones is the national open champion and odds-on favorite for the amateur tournament which starts under way at Flossmoor next month. And Perry Adair is the southern amateur champion, a title he won after a miracle round against Frank Godchaux at Birmingham some weeks ago.

The match this afternoon will start at 3:30 o'clock, this hour being selected in order that the playing could be done in the cool of the day, which would be entirely satisfactory to the customers. Scoring will be done on the Nassau system, it is presumed, as was the recent Jones-Adair-Hutchinson-Godchaux match.

Tickets are on sale at the town homes of the Capital City club and the Atlanta Athletic club and are going rapidly, but ample arrangements have been made to look after those who declined to "show early." Tickets will be sold at the main entrance at East Lake and the public is cordially invited to attend.

You don't have to be a member of any Atlanta club to become eligible for membership in the gallery. One dollar is the sole requirement and you'll get full value for the coin you left at the box office.

Americus Monday afternoon. The arrangement between the teams after the season was completed that the first team that won the first four of seven games would be the winner of the South Georgia title. Americus to date has won three games and Albany one.

According to Manager Joe Jackson of the Americus outfit, Holloman, the speed artist of the Americus outfit will work, while for Albany Milton Reid, a former star of the big league would be his selection.

The interest in these games is intense and fans from all parts of Georgia are coming into both towns to witness the games and especially to watch "Shoeless Joe" Jackson at work.

Roper is getting ready to bid farewell to Roanoke, Va., and make his home here with his family. Benedict should arrive in this city some time today.

Not content with offering the fans such a stellar attraction, Matchmaker Murphy is lining up a strong card of preliminary bouts that will precede the main bout.

The Roper and Benedict contest looks like one of the best heavyweight bouts ever arranged here and undoubtedly the auditorium will be well crowded Tuesday night.

Al Benedict, who is being imported to give the captain a tussle to bring out the best in him, should not need much of an introduction to the followers of the square circle.

Benedict has met some of the leading men of the square circle. His record shows that he has mingled with Bill Brennan, Charley Weiner, Carl Morris, Tom Kennedy, Al Reel, Jim Savage, Battling Levinsky and a host of others, equally well known.

The New Yorker will be one of the biggest men that Roper has been called upon to cross the ring with, standing 6 feet and one inch and weighing 205 pounds, without an ounce of surplus flesh. Benedict is a rugged two-fisted battler, with enough cleverness to worry the best of them.

Roper is getting ready to bid farewell to Roanoke, Va., and make his home here with his family. Benedict should arrive in this city some time today.

American League

St. Louis, August 24.—St. Louis made a clean sweep of the four-game series with Boston by taking today's contest, 9 to 5. Manager Jimmy Austin resumed his duties, having been advised by Ben Johnson, president of the league, that his indefinite suspension several days ago for protesting against ball and strike decisions had been lifted.

The Box Score.
BOSTON. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Fowler, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Lajoie, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Plagstad, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Harris, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Hanna, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
McMullen, ss. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Daverman, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Fullerton, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 30 0 0 0 0 0 0

ST. LOUIS. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Gerber, ss. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Hobbs, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Williams, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
McMullen, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
P. Collins, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Ezzell, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Vandier, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Burke, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 29 0 0 0 0 0 0

Score by innings.
1. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
2. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
3. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
4. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
5. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
6. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
7. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
8. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
9. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
10. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
11. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.
12. Boston 0, St. Louis 0.

YANKS RECOVER AND WIN.
Detroit, August 24.—The New York Yankees recovered from a two-game losing streak by defeating the Detroit Tigers, 10 to 1, in a game that was a real slugfest.

The Box Score.
NEW YORK. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Witt, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Dugan, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pugh, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Foster, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Munsel, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Hoffman, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Pennock, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 38 0 0 0 0 0 0

DETROIT. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Blue, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Jones, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Cobb, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Helmhorn, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Foster, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Rigney, ss. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Honey, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Bodgett, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Olsen, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Bodgett, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 38 0 0 0 0 0 0

Score by innings.
1. New York 1, Detroit 0.
2. New York 0, Detroit 0.
3. New York 0, Detroit 0.
4. New York 0, Detroit 0.
5. New York 0, Detroit 0.
6. New York 0, Detroit 0.
7. New York 0, Detroit 0.
8. New York 0, Detroit 0.
9. New York 0, Detroit 0.
10. New York 0, Detroit 0.
11. New York 0, Detroit 0.
12. New York 0, Detroit 0.

SENATORS RUN WILD.
Cleveland, August 24.—Washington batted five Cleveland pitchers hard and won the final game of the series, 20 to 8, in a game that was a real slugfest.

The Box Score.
WASHINGTON. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Leahy, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Goslin, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Schaefer, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Jude, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Harris, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Evan, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Russell, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Mitchell, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 42 0 0 0 0 0 0

CLEVELAND. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Jannion, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Gallagher, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Spencer, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Sewell, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Stephenson, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Brower, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
O'Neill, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Merritt, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Shante, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Metzger, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 41 0 0 0 0 0 0

Score by innings.
1. Washington 1, Cleveland 0.
2. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
3. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
4. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
5. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
6. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
7. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
8. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
9. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
10. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
11. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.
12. Washington 0, Cleveland 0.

PHILADELPHIA. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
McGowan, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Galloway, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Hale, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Houser, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Welch, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Porkins, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Naylor, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Harris, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 38 0 0 0 0 0 0

CHICAGO. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
Hopper, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
McGowan, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Galloway, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Porkins, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Shale, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Barnett, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Kamm, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Robertson, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
xxMott, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 38 0 0 0 0 0 0

Score by innings.
1. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
2. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
3. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
4. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
5. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
6. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
7. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
8. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
9. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
10. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
11. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.
12. Philadelphia 0, Chicago 0.

MADEIRA WIN "RUBBER."
Chicago, August 24.—The Athletics made it two out of three from the White Sox by taking today's final game, 10 to 3.

PHILADELPHIA. ab. r. h. po. a. e.
McGowan, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Galloway, 3b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Hale, 2b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Houser, 1b. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Welch, cf. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Porkins, c. . . . . 4 0 0 0 0 0 0
Naylor, p. . . . . 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Harris, p. . . . . 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals. . . . . 38 0 0 0 0 0 0

THE LAWS OF GOLF

—By—
INNIS BROWN

A player slices his drive to the right of the fairway and finds the ball lying in a puddle of water just back of a bush some ten or twelve feet high. In dropping he selected a spot on the left of the water which left the bush out of his line of play. Is this permissible?

A. Yes. In dropping a ball lifted from casual water a player is not required to keep the spot where the ball lay between himself and the hole. He should give good account of himself by dropping the ball in a spot where the water, not nearer the hole.

A. B is correct. By official interpretation it has been held that before a ball can be lifted from what is considered an unplayable lie, the ball must be moved to a spot where it can be played.

Bill Tilden and Partner Win in Net Doubles Bout
New Tennis Combination Faces Another Hard Battle Today Against Williams and Washburn

Brookline, Mass., August 24.—(By the Associated Press.) The new doubles combination of William Tilden, II, Philadelphia and Brian I. C. Norton, South Africa, today put together another strong and brilliant new combination, that of Manuel Alonso, Spain, and Wallace F. Johnston, Philadelphia, out of the running for national tennis honors in the American pair by the score of 7-0, 8-6, 6-2.

Tomorrow the winners of today will meet R. N. Williams, II, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and the American Davis cup team for 1923, and his partner, Watson Washburn, New York, for the national title. The latter team yesterday defeated the Australian Davis cup challengers, James O. Anderson and John B. Hawkes.

It was a fight to the finish today and the new combination, known to the game was employed in turn before the little and spectacular Spaniard and his cool, calm Philadelphia partner. The Spaniard, who has been so often the star today, as has been so often the case in the matches of the last week, and everyone was at a guess as to what the Spaniard would play. But he, too, excelled when the point was most needed.

Alonso attacked. The Spaniard and Norton was directed largely against Alonso. The Spaniard was believed to be more erratic and vulnerable than his team mate. The Spaniard had an unplayable lie was warmed. Unlike previous games in which the Spaniard has taken part, the Spaniard was directed his way. He was kept back near the base lines with long lobs, and his returns from that position were often on the verge of the margin. Whether he faced the Spaniard's lobs or the Spaniard's accurate, Johnson excelled at his lobbing game and was able to change the pace and direction often to the confusion of his rivals.

Norton proved invulnerable. While it was expected the attack would be directed at him after the first exchange, he was kept back near the base lines and was permitted to bear at least half of the brunt. The Spaniard, who has sprung to fame in tennis so spectacularly in the last three years, played with remarkable confidence and except for an early weakness in his overhead game, he played unusually steadily. He first set his three double faults were factors in the outcome.

The volleying and rallies at the net provided the galleries with frequent opportunities to cheer. Largely due to Tilden's wonderful angle of attack, the new combination had the better of these frequent encounters with the Spaniard, who slightly less in the limelight. Alonso's service was a frequent factor in the Spaniard's service strength was shown by his performance in losing but one set, which was won by the Spaniard. Johnson lost five and Alonso lost four.

CHAMP SEEKS SPAR MATES
Saratoga Spring, N. Y., August 23.—Recruiting a staff of sparring partners capable of developing his speed is the chief concern of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, who is training for his championship match with Luis Angel Firpo at the Polo Grounds, September 14.

Dempsey said today that Jack Kearns, his manager, is attempting to bring Jimmy Delaney, St. Paul lightweight here to join Jack Burke and George Godfrey, the two heavyweights training for his championship match with Dempsey.

Jack Renault, Canadian heavyweight, who helped train Dempsey for the Carpenter bout also probably will be added to the sparring staff. The heavyweight champion continued his workout yesterday for four rounds, stepping in with Godfrey and Burke. Godfrey managed to evade Dempsey's right cross until the close of the first round when the champion crowded him to the ropes and almost dropped him with a right to the chin. Dempsey apparently had no trouble in knocking solidly with his left.

When the entire outfit gets together in the Firpo cottage and starts talking, accompanied by Alberto's strong team as he scrapes pants in the kitchen, reminds one of a radio set gone wrong.

McKane Vs. Mallory.
Brookline, Mass., August 24.—Miss Kathleen McKane of England, will meet Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory of New York, tomorrow in the final match of the Longwood Cricket club singles tournament. Miss McKane eliminated Mrs. C. C. Clayton, also of England, 6-3, 6-0, in a hard-fought and thrilling encounter this afternoon. The third English woman to reach the semi-finals, Mrs. Geraldine Benham, was defeated by Mrs. Mallory 6-3, 6-0 today.

Athens Golf Match.
Marjatta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Walter Kennan, Eugene McNeil, Frank McNeil, George Daniel and C. D. Elder left today for Athens where they will represent the Marietta Golf club in a match Saturday. The club is a member of the North Georgia Golf league, which has a tournament in Athens on Saturday.

ATLANTA NET STARS IN MADE

On Monday the annual North Carolina state tennis tournament will be held on the courts of the Asheville County Club, Asheville, N. C. This event is always looked forward to with great interest by followers of tennis throughout the south, and the Asheville tennis which it brings to Asheville is invariably of the very highest order.

Atlanta will be represented at Asheville by four or five players, and they should give good account of themselves according to the pre-tournament dope that is to be obtained at the Atlanta Athletic club.

They are Nat Thornton, "Hop" Owens, Jack Caldwell, Tom Wilson and "Count" Boyer. The famous "Nat" has been no introduction to Atlantans, and has been prominent in tennis circles for two decades, and has won the premier honor in the south more times than he can count on the fingers of one hand. Nor does "Hop" Owens need any special introduction, as his feats of prowess of the past two or three years are still fresh in your mind.

Tom Wilson is a redoubtable old war horse who has been going to tournaments longer than some of his younger rivals have been playing. He is a member of the Southern Tennis club, and has won the title at Louisville a few weeks ago.

"Hop" Owens is, of course, favored to win the tournament, though he will have plenty of competition from Thornton and Caldwell of Atlanta, and McKane of Greenville. Hughes, of Charleston, "Hop's" doubles partner this year is Cary, who has been playing with him for some time. Jack Caldwell, with whom he won the doubles last year, is paired with "Nat" Thornton.

It is regretted by all in these parts that the well-known team of Carter and Orr was unable to appear at the meet, as there were some who still had hopes of seeing the famous "Jack" hurry a little bit.

LANIER TEAM CAMPING OUT
Macon, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—Twenty-two young men of high school age, enjoying every moment of the day and slumbering through the hours of the night, are at Wilder's camp, six miles east of Macon on the Camp Wheeler road, being instructed and cared for by Majors J. P. Blair, football coach, and Paul R. Anderson, boys' supervisor, High school. The camp opened Tuesday morning and will be continued through September 4.

Each morning at 6:30 o'clock the boys are aroused from their slumber and five minutes later they are dressed and prepared for what orders might be given by the instructors. Breakfast is served at 7 o'clock, and from that hour until 10 o'clock the boys are put through various physical and mental exercises.

Following the athletic games the camp for swimming is sounded. At 10:45 everyone must be in the water, and the boys are allowed to remain there until the noon hour, dinner being served at 12:30 o'clock. Each day a 2 o'clock lecture is given by the two instructors and indoor baseball is called at 4 o'clock. The boys retire shortly after dusk, a fatigued but happy lot.

Getting Football Men in Shape.
The camp is being conducted for the purpose of conditioning high school athletes for the coming football season, and for any others who might care to partake of the benefits derived. The camp is conducted on a cost basis, each member paying his proportion in every way.

Every Lanier student at Wilder now has announced his candidacy for a berth on the Lanier football machine. The camp is a most individual in its character, and the boys are devoting his every moment to it. It is expected that within the week twenty or thirty additional candidates will have arrived at the camp.

Following are the names of those now at the camp: "Smilin' Buncie" Skinner, E. K. Carline, George Baker, Ray Langston, Elton Adams, Addison McKane, E. J. Johnson, Fred Rand, William Rand, Billie J. White, William Sheppard, Johnnie Moore, Frank DeLamar, Luther Ray, Graydon, Harry Nightingale, Peter Dickert, F. J. Johnson, Francis Hall, Jimmie Sharp, Brewer Corbin and Fred Green.

MANY LANGUAGES HEARD IN LUIS FIRPO'S CAMP
Atlantic City, N. J., August 24.—Many tongues are spoken in the training camp of Luis Angel Firpo, challenger for the world's heavyweight boxing title, who is training at the camp of Nattalio Angel Pera, another Argentine, who has become a member of the sparring corps, speaks Spanish, Italian, and French. Carlos Vega, the liaison man, translates what is being said in Italian, French, German or English. Charles Schoeneman, the massenet and Frank Koebel, have the tete-a-tete, converses in either Spanish or French. Carlos Vega, the liaison man, translates what is being said in Italian, French, German or English.

And then there is Alberto, the Uruguayan, who is attempting to drop him with a right to the chin. Dempsey apparently had no trouble in knocking solidly with his left.

When the entire outfit gets together in the Firpo cottage and starts talking, accompanied by Alberto's strong team as he scrapes pants in the kitchen, reminds one of a radio set gone wrong.

McKane Vs. Mallory.
Brookline, Mass., August 24.—Miss Kathleen McKane of England, will meet Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory of New York, tomorrow in the final match of the Longwood Cricket club singles tournament. Miss McKane eliminated Mrs. C. C. Clayton, also of England, 6-3, 6-0, in a hard-fought and thrilling encounter this afternoon. The third English woman to reach the semi-finals, Mrs. Geraldine Benham, was defeated by Mrs. Mallory 6-3, 6-0 today.

Billiard Tourney.
Chicago, August 24.—The world series for the national championship of billiards, the Longwood Cricket club league will open at St. Louis on Sunday, September 15, it was announced.

Harris Jones, Athens Crack, Loses to White by 4 and 3; John Grant, Jr., Wins in 4th

Great Battle Is Expected When Tennessee Star, White, Grapples With "Tub" Palmer, Veteran Golfer.

Asheville, N. C., August 24.—Hopes for a native Georgian to capture the premier honors in the second annual invitation tournament at the Asheville Country Club were dashed to earth today when Harris Jones, Athens, lost to T. J. White, Kingsport, Tenn., four and three in the semi-finals.

Tub Palmer of Miami and Atlanta defeated Henry Westall, Asheville, four and three, and the first flight finals will be played tomorrow between White and Palmer.

Watts Gunn, Georgia, Champion, playing the first flight consolation, this morning won his match from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the tenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the eleventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twelfth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fourteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventeenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the eighteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the nineteenth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twentieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the twenty-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirtieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the thirty-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fortieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the forty-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fiftieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the fifty-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixtieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the sixty-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventieth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-first round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-second round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-third round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-fourth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-fifth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-sixth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-seventh round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-eighth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough, Jr., Asheville, one up. In the seventy-ninth round, White and Palmer, one up and Wilson from T. P. Chesborough

News of Society and Woman's Work

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

Features which Will Interest
Every Woman

Brilliant Golf Match and Bridge Game at East Lake

Many bridge parties are being arranged for those attending the benefit golf game for the Atlanta Woman's club this afternoon at the East Lake Country clubhouse, and the guests who are unable to follow in the gallery may entertain themselves in this attractive way.

One of the most interesting features of the game will be to watch and see whether a first class masculine player can outwit a first class feminine player from the tee, another is whether a first class feminine player can slip a steep pitch up to the pin and make it stop the way a first class masculine player can (to use the words of a golf expert) and this is what the spectators will be enabled to judge, when they see Miss Alex Stirling pair with Bobby Jones Saturday afternoon in a game against Perry Adair and Stewart Maiden. This game should attract a big assembly of golf fans, because it will afford the more expert students of golf a chance to study some points about which they are uncertain.

Judging from the many reservations already made for the game, there will be a record-breaking crowd in the gallery. Hundreds of women who are members of the Atlanta Woman's club will be among the spectators and are now working to make this the biggest game of the season from an attendance standpoint.

Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, president of the Woman's club, together with Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, chairman of the banquet hall committee, with their forces, have left nothing undone to insure marked success for the champion golf game and the entire membership of the club fully appreciated this splendid courtesy extended the club by these noted golf players.

Party Enjoyed by "Pace-Setters."

A delightful informal party was enjoyed Thursday evening when John H. Hornady entertained for his Sunday school class at the West End Presbyterian church on Gordon street.

About forty guests were present and many entertaining features were enjoyed. The class is composed of fifty of the reliable young men residing in and around West End and they have adopted the name, "Pace-Setters."

During the past season the class baseball team has won eleven games out of the thirteen played between the Sunday school league teams of the city, and much interest is manifested in the various activities of the class.

J. O. Chambers, Jr., is president of the class and made a very interesting talk Thursday evening, bringing out the fact that with the enthusiastic body of young men, who were interested in the "Pace-Setters" class

Miss Ashcraft Honors Pretty Virginia Visitor

A pretty event of Friday was the informal luncheon at which Miss Rebecca Ashcraft entertained at her home in Druid Hills in compliment to Miss Claire Robertson, of Emporia, Va., the feteed guest of her sister, Mrs. Bert Harless, at her home on Peachtree road.

The attractive living rooms were decorated with garden flowers from the hostess' own garden. The luncheon table in the dining room held a silver basket of asters and zinnias. Tall silver candelabra holding lavender tapers and cornucopias filled with lavender mints enhanced the table appointments.

Miss Ashcraft received her guests wearing a mid-day gown of navy Georgette.

Miss Robertson wore a becoming model of tan Georgette, elaborately embroidered, with a duvetyne hat to match.

Miss Harless was gowned in gray crepe de Chine worn with a fall model gray hat.

Invited to meet the honor guest were Miss Theodore Owens, Miss Eloise Allen, Mrs. Walter Wellborn, Miss Edythe Miller and Mrs. Harless.

Many worth-while things could be accomplished for good by their influence.

Mr. Hornady addressed the young people in an interesting way about the responsibility of an organization like this class. George White, superintendent of the Sunday school, also made an interesting talk.

The next undertaking of this interested class will be to organize an orchestra, many members being musicians already.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Dinner-dance at Piedmont Driving club.

Week-end dinner-dance at East Lake Country club.

Mrs. Tarleton Carter Pittard will give a bridge-tea in honor of Miss Loula Hutchinson Nixon, a bride-elect.

The friends of the members of the Tango club will be entertained with a dance this evening at Hurst hall. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock.

An informal dance of the Musicians' club for its members and friends will be given at the Roseland hall this evening at 9 o'clock.

The children of Center Hill Eastern Star chapter will give a Tom Thumb wedding at Capital City chapter rooms, 423 1/2 Marietta street, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Phyllis Wilkins will entertain at the Saturday evening dinner-dance at the East Lake Country club in honor of her guest, Miss Mary Edwards, and Miss Betty Shackelford, the guest of Miss Margaret Fraser.

Mrs. T. R. Coggins will entertain at a bridge-tea at the Atlanta Woman's club in compliment to Miss Pearl Coggins and her guests, Misses Mildred Nix, Martha Fortson and Susie Wilson.

Patronesses at Curb Market.

At this season of the year hundreds of housewives are seen at the new municipal curb market, which was recently moved to Bell street and Edgewood avenue, buying fruits and vegetables for canning, preserving and making pickles. The market is full of delicious fruit and vegetables that may be purchased direct from the farmer for a very small sum, which reduces the cost of the preserving considerably.

It is interesting to know how these busy housekeepers enjoy their marketing. One prominent woman, who has been ill for many months and can do nothing more than drive down and select her delicacies for home use, was heard to say recently that she anticipated her trips to the market, not only to buy delicious eatables, but to catch the fresh air that the farmers bring in.

Mrs. Norman Sharp, chairman of the curb market committee of the Atlanta Woman's club, has appointed patronesses for today as follows: Mrs. John Manget, Mrs. Sam Osburn, Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, Mrs. T. G. Delph, Mrs. Frank McCormack, Mrs. Fuzzy Woodruff, Mrs. O. H. Matthews, Mrs. James L. Key, Mrs. George L. Brower, Mrs. D. M. Horine, Mrs. J. P. Billups, Mrs. William Fisch, Mrs. Turner Carson.

Mrs. Robert Grier To Give Dinner.

Mrs. Robert Grier will entertain at an informal dancing party Saturday evening at the Mary Barnard Tea room in compliment to R. A. Grier, who has returned from an extensive trip to south Georgia and Florida.

Miss Bullock Complimented at Party Series

Miss Minnie Bullock, the attractive guest of Miss Littell Funkhouser, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Littell Funkhouser, on Ponce de Leon avenue, was the central figure at a series of parties given in her honor Friday.

The first was a luncheon at which Miss Margaret Hodnett entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hodnett, on Piedmont avenue.

The spacious reception rooms presented an inviting appearance, decorated with quantities of black-eyed Susans, golden glow and marigold.

The luncheon table in the dining room held in the center a silver basket of the same flowers and was further adorned by crystal candelabra holding yellow tapers and silver cornucopias of yellow glass fruits.

Miss Hodnett received her guests wearing pale green Georgette, beaded.

Miss Funkhouser was gowned in a white sport costume and a hat to match.

Miss Hodnett wore a sport costume of white and a felt hat.

Later in the afternoon Miss Mary Armstrong was hostess at a swimming party at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Bullock.

Mrs. Smith Honors Mrs. Hunnicutt.

Mrs. J. Edgar Hunnicutt, Jr., a recent bride who before her marriage was Miss Margaret Wilson, of Berlin, Conn., was the charming honor guest at a bridge-tea, entertained Friday by Mrs. DeFord Smith, at the Georgian Terrace.

The tables were arranged in the sun room and tea was served here following the game. Roses and gladioli held in silver baskets formed the principal decoration. The honor guest and winners of top score and consolation prizes were awarded attractive bridge novelties.

Tea at Woman's Club Friday Proves Delightful Occasion

Assembling a large number of interesting parties entertained in honor of popular visitors, brides-elect and recent brides, the tea at the Atlanta Woman's club Friday afternoon proved, as usual, a delightful occasion.

Large baskets holding marigold, golden glow and zinnias were used in the decoration of the club rooms, the quiet hall. The individual tables were covered with Madeira cloths and held vases of the same summer flowers.

Centering attention was the presence of Mrs. Clifford Walker, wife of Governor Walker, and Mr. R. H. McCaslin, of Jacksonville, Fla., wife of the noted Presbyterian minister, who were honor guests at a tea entertained by Mrs. R. L. Turman and Mrs. J. W. Wills.

Bride-Elect Honored.

Mrs. John Henry Dobbs was hostess at one of the larger parties, entertaining in compliment to Miss Maj. Lloyd D. Carlock, U. S. A., will be a Horine, whose marriage to Major Carlock took place on September 1.

The tables were placed in the palm room of the club where a game of bridge was enjoyed, which was later followed by tea. The honor guest was presented with a hand-embroidered handkerchief holder, while the winner of top score was awarded a Japanese sandwich tray and the winner of consolation a set of silver corn holders.

Mrs. Eli McCord and Mrs. Walter Bedard assisted in entertaining.

The guests included Mrs. E. H. Carman, Jr., Miss Edna Horine, Mrs. Lee Worsham, Mrs. Turner Carson, Mrs. Wilmer Moore, Jr., Mrs. J. N. Keelin, Mrs. T. J. Stevens, Mrs. Leaver Richardson, Mrs. L. F. Wamsley, Mrs. Hal Hart, of Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Clarence Coppedge, Mrs. E. W. Moore, Mrs. Julian Thomas, Mrs. Jack Simpson, Mrs. E. H. Horine, Mrs. Peter Clark and Mrs. Mary B. Griffith.

Rhode Island Visitor Entertained.

Mrs. Arthur Patterson, of Providence, R. I., who is the guest of Mrs. George Davis, was the central figure at a party entertained by Mrs. Wilbur Kurtz.

Mrs. J. N. Steadwell was hostess at a pretty party in compliment to Mrs. Edward P. Dulancy, a recent bride, and Miss Marie Coon, of Nashville, Tenn. Completing the party were Mrs. E. K. Voorheis, Mrs. Will C. Hamsey, Mrs. James W. Popham and Miss Edith Steadwell.

Mrs. Andrew Walker and Mrs. A. M. George, of McDonough, Ga., were the honor guests at a bridge-tea entertained by Mrs. B. E. Horton. Invited to meet the honor guests were Mrs. J. H. Beckham, Mrs. Toomber, Mrs. Judge, Mrs. D. D. Brown, Mrs. W. T. Hardy, Mrs. A. E. Stevens, Mrs. Beasley, Mrs. S. E. Moore and others.

Others Entertaining.

Others entertaining small parties were Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Mrs. Porter Langston, Miss Katherine Crabbe, Miss Dorothy Banks, Mrs. Homer Ashford, Mrs. Hal Roberts, Mrs. R. Z. Chambliss and Miss Florrie Walker.

BIRTHDAY CARDS
DISTINCTIVE DESIGNS APPROPRIATE SENTIMENTS
J. P. STEVENS ENGRAVING CO.
103 Peachtree Street
Atlanta, Georgia

MRS. CHERRY'S SCHOOL

ESTABLISHED 1906 — — — — DRUID HILLS SECTION
DEPARTMENTS: Primary, Intermediate, Junior High and High School, Music, Art, Expression, Physical Training, French and Spanish. LOCATION: Druid Hills section, unexcelled, accessible to all parts of city. FACULTY: College graduates, experienced and capable. Individual training in small classes. Thoroughness the aim.
MRS. J. W. CHERRY, Principal
1144 Highland.
Opens September 10th

In Quality Alone
Is There
Real Economy

Without Quality Merchandise
Is Without Value

Sweaters

at most extreme

Reductions

$1.95 to $3.95

Sweaters

95c

Wool slip-overs, medium and light weights in all colors—solid, striped and novelty weaves.

$4.95 to $6.95

Sweaters

$2.95

Slip-over models in wool, silk and wool mixtures, all colors in many beautiful weaves and combinations.

$6.95 to $13.95

Silk

Sweaters

$4.95

Pure silk and fibre silk of Tuxedo and slip-over models—all colors and beautiful fancy weaves. Splendid for school wear.

Second Floor

In Window 1

New Fall Dresses

Of Wool Jersey

Over-blouse models with full pleated skirts and straight one-piece dresses with narrow self tie belts. Trimmings of bands of contrasting color, linen collars and cuffs. Two-tone combinations with the bodice very prettily braided. Navy, henna, black, grey, brown.

Values most unusual at $15.00

Second Floor

In Window 2

Smart Frocks

For

Children

8 to 14

There's real distinction of style in these little quality frocks for young folks that will appeal to mothers and daughters alike. Wool crepes, velvets, plaids, are shown in solid shades and many exceedingly pretty combinations. Tans, browns, blues, greys predominate, with pleasing touches of bright hand-embroideries.

Real Quality Values

$9.95

Juvenile Section—Second Floor

Watch Our Windows

Day by Day They Are Telling
Of Unusual Opportunities to Buy

Quality Merchandise

At Prices Exceptionally Low

To Be Seen Today

In Window 3

The Newest Neckwear

There is delightfully pleasing variety in this beautiful new neckwear at a most remarkable price. Collars, collar and cuff sets, in Buster Brown and Peter Pan styles. The new deep bib sets, made of many rows of lace, lace with organdie, net and eyelet work. Many designs in the heavy laces. All exquisitely fresh and new and offered at a

Most Remarkable Price

95c

Main Floor—Front

In Window 4

Handmade Handkerchiefs

It scarcely seems possible that such daintiness, such quality and beauty in handkerchiefs can be offered at such a price! Silk pongee with whipped edges, drawn threads and colored embroidery. All pure linen in white and in every pretty shade, with whipped edges or hemstitched (by machine) with the daintiest colored embroideries.

Values Extraordinary

50c

Main Floor

In Window 6

A Remarkable

Crepe de Chine

At a Remarkable Price

No other crepe de chine of such remarkably good quality has been seen at such a very low price. In addition to black and white, there are forty shades for street and evening costumes and for every one of the many uses for which crepe de chine is so popular. One of our most notable quality values.

Shown in 40 Shades

$1.59 yd.

Main Floor

In Window 5

The Fascinating Game of Mah Jongg

For more centuries than anyone seems to know, the Mandarins and other nobles of ancient China kept mah jongg to themselves. Now it is made available to all, and we are showing only the genuine Chinese sets without which the game loses its charm. Free instructions by an expert will be announced to begin soon.

Mah Jongg Sets at

$10 to $150

Notions Section

Blouses

Soiled or Mussed Reduced
For Quick

Clearance

$1.49 to $1.95

Blouses

95c

Sheer dimities and batistes in tailored and lace trimmed models of many designs.

$2.95 to $3.95

Blouses

$1.95

Fine voiles—mostly hand made—and trimmed in real Irish and Filet laces. Many designs.

Second Floor

Small Lot

Children's

Bathing

Suits

$1.95 to $3.98

All at

95c

All-wool suits in sizes 2 to 12. All colors—broken size range.

Juvenile Section
Second Floor

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

Mrs. Haden Urges Central Park Plan Movement

Mrs. Charles J. Haden, prominent Atlantan, who believes that Atlanta should vote for bonds in September, and stresses the value of the central bank.

Mrs. Charles J. Haden, past president of the Atlanta Federation of Women Clubs, one of the most prominent out women in Atlanta, writes for the Constitution a strong article favorable to the forthcoming bond issue for a central park. Mrs. Haden has always worked toward every civic betterment for Atlanta, and is a leader in the movement.

"The success of Atlanta is chiefly due to the willingness of her people to respond wholeheartedly to whatever is "On September 5, the decision will be made whether we shall have a beautiful central park. It is unnecessary to argue the value of parks, the first thing London is to announce."

the city, would seem but a trifle, and years henceforth counted one of Atlanta's priceless assets.

Other City Parks. "Beautiful Grant park and Piedmont park mean much to us, and yet many are not privileged to visit either, not often because of the distance, but to go to them, but a park centrally located would be a great convenience that it will be wisely spent. "It is earnestly hoped that September 5 will register a heavy vote to give Atlanta the blessings of a central park. "MRS. CHARLES HAYDEN."

The Constitution's Patterns

A black and white line drawing of a young boy and a young girl. The boy, on the left, is wearing a traditional Indian dhoti and a shawl with a decorative border. He is looking towards the right. The girl, on the right, is wearing a sari with a patterned border and a blouse. She is looking towards the left. They appear to be in a conversation or a shared activity.

3677 3921 4472

POPULAR STYLE FOR GROW-ING BOYS

Pongee, crash, linen, gingham, chintz and crepe are nice for this style.

Pattern 3677 was employed in the making of this design. It is cut in 4 sizes: 3, 4, 6 and 8 years. A 4-year child will require 23-4 yards of 36-inch material.

4472. Figured percale in white and blue is easy to develop and easy to adjust. The straps may be fastened to the belt with buttons or snap fasteners.

The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. A 12-year size requires 2 yards of 27-inch material. Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

A POPULAR MODEL.
1921. Every "small" person likes effort, and never more than at play-
e. In this neat and simple play
"fashion" has contrived to de-

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 1, 2, 3, 4.

nd 4 years. A 2-year size will re-
23-8 yards of 36-inch material.

Complicates Break
With United States

Washington, August 24.—Consid-

...interest has been aroused among commerce department officials in a recent decision in a Cuban court which, it is said, may greatly improve commercial relations between the two countries. "I have no pains and cramps so badly that I didn't know what to do. Benedicta has done me a world of good. I think it wonderful." Benedicta has helped an inestimable number of private commercial relations between Cuba and the United States. As reported to the department by commercial attache at Havana, decision invalidates protested

Benedicta
HEALTH BUILDER for Women

investors.

by INEZ KLUMBE
Illustrated by MARGUERITE NEALE

CHAPTER LX.
The Escape.

"But how could the levee here—I thought the only way out was through the living room!" exclaimed Larry.

"No—there is another. It opens on a hall that the servants use, but Valerle always kept it locked." Glorla explained.

The room was in disorder. Clothes were strewn about, as if Valerle had packed hastily, and a traveling bag and a suitcase, both partly filled, were on the bed.

"She must have taken just her little overnight bag—evidently she thought she hadn't time to do more."

or at once; his wife is very ill, and he wants me to take the baby to a friend's house on Long Island. I don't know when I'll be back. Valerle."

"She tried to cover her tracks, even though she was in such a hurry, didn't she," commented Larry. "Well, come on—is this the door?"

They went out into the narrow hall that led to an elevator used by the servants, and took it down to the street floor. On the sidewalk outside some small boys were playing; Larry hailed them at once.

"Did you boys see a lady and a baby come out of this door a few minutes ago?" he asked.

"Aw, 'd'you think we kot noticed."

"...didn't I come in here sooner—if it hadn't been for that telephone call I wouldn't have been here!"

"Where would she go—have you any idea?" asked Larry. "Has she ever been to any of a home anywhere, or any part of the country, that she knew especially well? Stop and think—we can't possibly catch her on her way, so there's time for that."

"No; she never talked much about her friends. Only—I do remember that she was very fond of a certain awfully tired and blide, she spoke of a home somewhere up in the Berkshires Hills, an old house that she had bought some time ago. I don't know how happy there once, with her husband, and that she'd always keep it. I don't know if she had a side place somewhere, and that the word wasn't worth anything, but that's all I know."

"Sure—I seen a dame come out here with a kid," volunteered another, excitedly stimulated into speech by the question. "I seen her in his pocket. Had on a veil and the kid was cryin'. And there was a car here—a Packard," he added, with a flourish. "I'm sure, rather surprised my knowledge of automobiles. It was a touring car, a 1922 model. Had a kid in the back seat, and he was crying the door and they run down here to the corner and he cut into the Avenue without even lookin' at the signals or the lights. I seen him get in the car as Larry slipped a coin into his hand."

"Well, here's where we have friends," Larry told Gloria, who was staring at him. "I'll make a note—I'll phone him from the drug store over here, and then we'll start—that is, if you won't mind, Gloria. I guess you'll want to chase 'em you know—maybe you oughtn't to go. In fact, you mustn't."

me go along. I'll run upstairs for my hat and a coat, and meet you at the other door in ten minutes. Will that give you time enough?"

"Sure—I'll be there," he answered, and hurried away to telephone.

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

Monday—The Chase.

Rehearsing Granted To Woman Seeking

Insurance Payments

A rehearing in the suit of Mrs. J. H. Summerrall, widow of an Atlanta traveling salesman, against the New American Casualty company, in which she is seeking damages for the death of her husband who was killed in an automobile accident on September 13, 1921, was granted by the Georgia court of appeals Friday.

Mr. Summerrall, an employee of a local manufacturing concern, was killed when the automobile he was driving after having run over a dog near Ocella, Ga., overturned and crushed him beneath it.

The Georgia Industrial Commission held that the company was liable for the accident under the workmen's compensation act. In its decision the court of appeals said it should award the widow her husband was killed in pursuit of his duty, she could

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
49-53 ——— Whitehall

Sale
Today

Saturday Morning:
Philippine Gowns
and Envelopes
$1.95

Values much greater—fine quality lingerie—beautifully embroidered.

—Main Floor

J. P. Allen & Co.

KRYPTOK

BIFOCALS

EXCLUSIVE OPTICAL SERVICE

Many patients pay for unsatisfactory glasses furnished by optical firms who claim to sell for a trifle less than the legitimate optical man. Glasses are like diamonds, they have a market value and when they are sold for less than the market value there is sure to be something wrong somewhere. The first thing you notice in Ballard's glasses is the comfortable feeling of your frame adjustments by the Ballard service which is not always found elsewhere. The second thing you notice is you have gotten rid of that nagging or tired feeling you often experience from glasses where there is some little something left out. We have thousands of patients all over the states who

WALTER BALLARD OPTICAL CO.
105 Peachtree Street (Clock Sign)

Her Friend's Husband

by INEZ KLUMPH

Illustrated by MARGUERITE NEALE

CHAPTER LX.
The Escape.

"But how could she leave here—I thought the only way out was through the living room!" exclaimed Larry.

"No—there is another. It opens on a hall that the servants use, but Valerie always kept it locked," Gloria explained.

The room was in disorder. Clothes were strewn about, as if Valerie had packed hastily, and a traveling bag and a suitcase, both partly filled, were on the bed.

"She must have taken just her little overnight bag—evidently she thought she hadn't time to pack anything else," Gloria said. "Oh, why didn't I come in here sooner—if it hadn't been for that telephone call I would have."

"Where would she go—have you any idea?" asked Larry. "Has she ever spoken to you of a home anywhere, or any part of the country that she knew especially well? Stop and think—we can't possibly catch her on her way, so there's time for that."

"No; she never talked much about herself. Only—I do remember that one evening when she seemed to feel awfully tired and lidle, she spoke of a house somewhere up in the Berkshire Hills, an old house that she owned. She said that she'd been very happy there once, with her husband, and that she'd always keep it. She said it was away off on a side road somewhere, and that the property wasn't worth anything, but that er at once; his wife is very ill, and he wants me to take the baby to a friend's house on Long Island. I don't know when I'll be back. Valerie."

"She tried to cover her tracks, every-thing she was in such a hurry, didn't she," commented Larry. "Well, come on—is this the door?"

They went out into the narrow hall that led to an elevator used by the servants, and took it down to the street floor. On the sidewalk outside some small boys were playing; Larry caught them at once.

"Did you boys see a lady and a baby come out of this door a few minutes ago?" he asked.

"Aw, y'ou think we got nothing to do but stand 'round here lookin' at folks who come outa here?" demanded one of them, disgustedly.

"Sure—I see a dame come out here with a kid," volunteered another, evidently stimulated into speech by the fact that Larry had one hand in his pocket. Had on a veil and the kid was cryin'. And there was a horse—a Packard," he added, with the street urchin's rather surprising knowledge of automobiles. "It was a touring car, a 1922 model. Had a driver. She got in and he slammed the door and they run down here to the corner and he cut into the Avenue without even lookin' at the sign's on the wall." "Thanks, Mister," he added as Larry slipped a coin into his hand.

"Well, here's where we start," Larry told Gloria. "If I have a friend whose car we can take—I'll phone him from the drug store over here, and then we'll start—that is, if you won't mind going, Gloria. It may be a long chase, you know—maybe you ought not to go. In fact, you mustn't—I couldn't let you."

"In going, whether you'll let me or not," Gloria retorted. "I think I know just about where the house is, and you don't, so you'll have to let me go along. I'll run upstairs for my hat and a coat, and meet you at the other door in ten minutes. Will that give you time enough?"

"Sure—I'll be there," he answered, and hurried away to telephone.

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

Monday—The Chase.

Rehearing Granted To Woman Seeking Insurance Payments

A rehearing in the suit of Mrs. J. H. Summerall, widow of an Atlanta traveling salesman, against the New Amsterdam Casualty company, in which she is seeking damages for the death of her husband who was killed in an automobile accident on September 13, 1921, was granted by the Georgia court of appeals Friday.

Mr. Summerall, an employee of a local manufacturing concern, was killed when the automobile he was driving, after having run over a dog near Ocella, Ga., overturned and crushed him beneath it.

The Georgia Industrial commission held that the company was liable for the accident under the workmen's compensation act. In its decision the court of appeals held that should the widow prove her husband was killed in pursuit of his duty, she could collect.

Some small boys had seen a lady and baby drive away.

It was very dear to her. She just felt the name of the town near it slip out—I don't believe that she meant it. It's up in Massachusetts, beyond Lenox—I happened to know about it, because when I was in school I visited a friend of mine whose people had a country place at Lenox. She didn't say very much about it, but I wouldn't be surprised if that was where she's gone now.

"It's a hunch worth following up, anyway," Larry declared. "Look—here's a note for you."

On the dressing table lay a hastily written note. Gloria picked it up and read—"Gloria—I'm joining my broth-

J. P. ALLEN & CO.

49-53 ——— Whitehall

Sale Today

Saturday Morning:

Philippine Gowns and Envelopes

$1.95

Values much greater—fine quality lingerie—beautifully embroidered.

—Main Floor

J. P. Allen & Co.

KRYPTOK

BIFOCALS

EXCLUSIVE OPTICAL SERVICE.

Many patients pay for unsatisfactory glasses furnished by optical firms who claim to sell for a trifle less than the legitimate optical man. Glasses are like diamonds, they have a market value and when they are sold for less than the market value there is sure to be something wrong somewhere. The first thing you notice in Ballard's glasses is the comfortable feeling of your frame adjustments by the Ballard service which is not always found elsewhere. The second thing you notice is you have gotten rid of that nagging or tired feeling you often experience from glasses where there is some little something left out. We have thousands of patients all over the states who will vouch for this statement. Ask any of them.

WALTER BALLARD OPTICAL CO.

105 Peachtree Street (Clock Sign)

THE SOUL SCAR

BY BELDON DUFF

Next Week, "The Beautiful and Damned."
By F. Scott Fitzgerald.

(Continued from Yesterday.)

"When I left here this morning," she began, in a voice that spoke of mental and physical prostration, "I thought I could, for my little girl's sake, cover this up. I see now that it was a false move. No good can come of running away. Better a thousand times have stayed and faced the issue in the first place."

"I am Clayton Hitchcock, and I am not guilty of my wife's death. Mrs. Hitchcock and I have been married for five years. I was a widower with one child when I met her. We have not been happy, but I had no thought of killing her."

"I came up here on this fishing trip to be alone, to have a chance to think things out, and—well, with a suggestion of bitterness in the words—"I should probably have gone back if it had not been for my man, Jacques. You have heard how he planned to blackmail my wife."

"His plan fell through, because I had that very afternoon received a telegram apprising me of my wife's flight. When Jacques heard that, he intended to return to New York immediately, he told me of what he had learned. I came over here to make sure that he was—well, to prove to myself that he was lying."

"With a visible effort he went on: 'My interview with my wife was not satisfactory. She would not return with me to New York. She had determined to seek a future on the stage—the bait this Quagline had used to ensnare her—and announced her intention of continuing on her way to Canada and sailing with him for France.'

"She told me something I did not understand at the moment—something about already having had her plans interfered with—about Quagline having gone to Mink Harbor for the night. I left her, my one thought to find this man and force him to give up his scheme. I never had the opportunity to convince my wife—to speak to her again."

"It was O'Meara who broke the silence following Hitchcock's statement. 'And now, son,' he remarked, turning affably to Jones, 'all the returns are in. Every count that half-admission except yours. Suppose you start by giving us your name?'

"The clerk took a deep breath. 'Jones,' he said. 'Alfred Jones.'

"O'Meara's shrug signified that a name more or less was a matter of small importance."

"It's been said that you confessed to this murder," said the other man. "No," Jones eyed him coolly. "I simply said that when Quagline left the house, he left me with Mrs. Hitchcock."

"I see," O'Meara ran his hand over his smoothly oiled head. "And what was your particular reason for accepting the burden of guilt, then? You knew how that half-admission was going to sound, didn't you? Come—as the clerk's jaw set stubbornly—"out with it!"

A grunt from Bill, a nervous cough from the Italian. Hitchcock stirred uneasily.

"It was a full moment before Jones spoke."

"I had a row with Quagline. He was acting like a dog and I beat him up. That's why he left the house. He's a rotter—he's not a murderer. What else—"

A sound from the hall that drew every eye. With a bang the door flew open. Miss Merilla appeared on the threshold with a pale-faced, reedy girl.

"I brought you a witness—a most unwilling witness, the old lady announced. 'Took me an hour to make her see reason, but here we are! No use going any further with your speculations. Lucy Painter knows how Mrs. Hitchcock came to her death. She's been afraid to tell for fear you'd hold her responsible. Go on—with a little push—tell 'em what happened."

CHAPTER XXXVII.
Lucy Tells the "Truth."

With faltering steps, the girl walked toward the group.

"It was O'Meara who saw her courage oozing. He stepped forward and took the limp hand in his own."

"Why, it's my little friend, Lucy—Lucy Painter—drawing her skirts fully into the circle. 'So there is something more you can tell us. Well, by all means, let's have it.'

The girl placed a fold of her dress between her fingers and rolled it over and over."

"—she began. 'I seen the lady—'

"Say, Mrs. Hitchcock," put in the coroner. "We all know who she was now."

"Yes, sir." The girl gulped nervously. "I seen Mrs. Hitchcock run out the front door after Bill. Bill had some blankets. Mrs. Hitchcock ran after him. She was angry—real angry. I waited a minute, but she did not come back. I know it was raining—she was going to spoil her red coat. I was sorry. I went out after her."

A pause. The Painter girl seemed suddenly to realize the prominence of her position.

"Yes—and then?" O'Meara prompted soothingly.

"Mrs. Hitchcock was standing right outside the door, near the edge of the porch—close to the edge. The light from the hall showed her coat flapping in the wind. She had her back turned. She was looking out into the dark, toward the road. Suddenly the girl began to cry. 'Oh, don't make me tell it,' she wailed. 'Don't make me—'

"Yes, yes; you must go on." It was Miss Merilla who spoke.

"I went out," the girl continued. "I went out. The wind was making a lot of noise. I guess Mrs. Hitchcock didn't hear me. I touched her. I was going to come in, but she—when she felt my hand on her arm, she gave a sort of cry and jumped back. She—Lucy put her hand over her eyes—she went right over the edge of the porch. I heard her hit the ground, and I waited."

"Then I called, but she didn't answer me. It was awful—awful! I went down. There she lay, with her head on one of the stones—the stones where the nasturtiums grow. I tried to lift her up, and she just flopped over like a rag doll."

"I knew she was dead! I ran up to call some one, and then I began to think. I was afraid they'd say I pushed her. So I looked the front door and put out the light and—went to bed."

For the first time in days, Natalie Mallinson felt a moment's relax.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.
"The Story Doesn't Wash."

"And now, Lucy Painter—it was the voice of O'Meara, no longer suave, caressing, but with a note of sternness, the veiled hint of a threat—"and now, Lucy Painter, you will give us the name of the person who induced you to tell this ingenious lie and just what you expect to get out of it?"

Hitchcock glared at the detective.

she saw her fall. There is some part of Lucy Painter's story that doesn't wash, and I want to know why. Have you any objection?"

The broker flinched, opened his mouth as though to answer, abruptly changed his mind and sank back into the armchair.

"This guile? Was this way a man looked when he had committed a crime? Natalie Mallinson felt a sudden pity for the unhappy human beings who had made mistakes and had their world turn its back upon them. Mr. Burby's voice, cut into the silence that followed the detective's words."

"The proceeding is out of order. It's not regular. I am the coroner—I am in charge here. You had no right to overstep my authority. Was that these four men he detained. Mr. Officer—"

He addressed one of the policemen—"until a thorough and complete investigation can be made into the truth of their statements." He indicated that the room was to be cleared.

CHAPTER XXXIX.
Drydock Channing's Son.

Natalie Mallinson found herself with Aunt Merilla, Miss Pringle and the guests swept ignominiously into the hall.

Her first thought was of the girl, Lucy Painter. But she had been detained with the guests, and she had learned. I came over here to make sure that he was—to prove to myself that he was lying."

With a visible effort he went on: 'My interview with my wife was not satisfactory. She would not return with me to New York. She had determined to seek a future on the stage—the bait this Quagline had used to ensnare her—and announced her intention of continuing on her way to Canada and sailing with him for France.'

"She told me something I did not understand at the moment—something about already having had her plans interfered with—about Quagline having gone to Mink Harbor for the night. I left her, my one thought to find this man and force him to give up his scheme. I never had the opportunity to convince my wife—to speak to her again."

"It was O'Meara who broke the silence following Hitchcock's statement. 'And now, son,' he remarked, turning affably to Jones, 'all the returns are in. Every count that half-admission except yours. Suppose you start by giving us your name?'

"The clerk took a deep breath. 'Jones,' he said. 'Alfred Jones.'

"O'Meara's shrug signified that a name more or less was a matter of small importance."

"It's been said that you confessed to this murder," said the other man. "No," Jones eyed him coolly. "I simply said that when Quagline left the house, he left me with Mrs. Hitchcock."

"I see," O'Meara ran his hand over his smoothly oiled head. "And what was your particular reason for accepting the burden of guilt, then? You knew how that half-admission was going to sound, didn't you? Come—as the clerk's jaw set stubbornly—"out with it!"

A grunt from Bill, a nervous cough from the Italian. Hitchcock stirred uneasily.

"It was a full moment before Jones spoke."

"I had a row with Quagline. He was acting like a dog and I beat him up. That's why he left the house. He's a rotter—he's not a murderer. What else—"

A sound from the hall that drew every eye. With a bang the door flew open. Miss Merilla appeared on the threshold with a pale-faced, reedy girl.

"I brought you a witness—a most unwilling witness, the old lady announced. 'Took me an hour to make her see reason, but here we are! No use going any further with your speculations. Lucy Painter knows how Mrs. Hitchcock came to her death. She's been afraid to tell for fear you'd hold her responsible. Go on—with a little push—tell 'em what happened."

CHAPTER XXXVII.
Lucy Tells the "Truth."

With faltering steps, the girl walked toward the group.

"It was O'Meara who saw her courage oozing. He stepped forward and took the limp hand in his own."

"Why, it's my little friend, Lucy—Lucy Painter—drawing her skirts fully into the circle. 'So there is something more you can tell us. Well, by all means, let's have it.'

The girl placed a fold of her dress between her fingers and rolled it over and over."

"—she began. 'I seen the lady—'

"Say, Mrs. Hitchcock," put in the coroner. "We all know who she was now."

"Yes, sir." The girl gulped nervously. "I seen Mrs. Hitchcock run out the front door after Bill. Bill had some blankets. Mrs. Hitchcock ran after him. She was angry—real angry. I waited a minute, but she did not come back. I know it was raining—she was going to spoil her red coat. I was sorry. I went out after her."

A pause. The Painter girl seemed suddenly to realize the prominence of her position.

"Yes—and then?" O'Meara prompted soothingly.

"Mrs. Hitchcock was standing right outside the door, near the edge of the porch—close to the edge. The light from the hall showed her coat flapping in the wind. She had her back turned. She was looking out into the dark, toward the road. Suddenly the girl began to cry. 'Oh, don't make me tell it,' she wailed. 'Don't make me—'

"Yes, yes; you must go on." It was Miss Merilla who spoke.

"I went out," the girl continued. "I went out. The wind was making a lot of noise. I guess Mrs. Hitchcock didn't hear me. I touched her. I was going to come in, but she—when she felt my hand on her arm, she gave a sort of cry and jumped back. She—Lucy put her hand over her eyes—she went right over the edge of the porch. I heard her hit the ground, and I waited."

"Then I called, but she didn't answer me. It was awful—awful! I went down. There she lay, with her head on one of the stones—the stones where the nasturtiums grow. I tried to lift her up, and she just flopped over like a rag doll."

"I knew she was dead! I ran up to call some one, and then I began to think. I was afraid they'd say I pushed her. So I looked the front door and put out the light and—went to bed."

For the first time in days, Natalie Mallinson felt a moment's relax.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.
"The Story Doesn't Wash."

"And now, Lucy Painter—it was the voice of O'Meara, no longer suave, caressing, but with a note of sternness, the veiled hint of a threat—"and now, Lucy Painter, you will give us the name of the person who induced you to tell this ingenious lie and just what you expect to get out of it?"

Hitchcock glared at the detective.

"What are you trying to insinuate? What do you mean by that question?"

"I mean, Mr. Clayton Hitchcock, that your wife's body was found in the bird-bath, fully forty feet away from the place where this girl says cautious about handling her as though she were a prickly pear.

THE GUMPS—SHIP AHOY!

"Excuse me, ma'am," he began. But his tormentor cut him short.

"There's no sense in believing you any more. I brought you a peace offering—the truth at last—the truth, or I am no Tillinghast. Come, now; at least credit me with being persistent."

Mr. Burby flung up his hands. Taking the gesture as a signal to begin, Miss Merilla gazed triumphantly upon her audience.

"First"—she put one forefinger against the other as she checked off her points—"first, Lucy Painter was not lying. Mrs. Hitchcock did fall off the porch."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

"Why, nobody but Sammy knows, and he can't explain. And now," finished Miss Merilla, "you can't thrash it over as much as you like, but these are the facts and you can't change them."

"Second, the fall killed her. 'Third,' a pause; Miss Merilla lowered her voice—"it was Mr. Hitchcock who startled the princess-woman, as my niece called her. It was his sudden appearance which made her take the misstep that sent her to her death. Lucy had reached the porch just in time to see it."

"Fourth"—here the voice rose again—"after Clayton Hitchcock had paid the girl to keep silent, had left his wife lying there, had run away, it was Sammy Todd—poor, foolish Sammy Todd—prowling in the early morning, who picked the body up and put it into the horsetrough."

CHAPTER XXXVI.
Chickpeppox.

Half an hour later, as O'Meara bade good-bye to Mr. Burby, he looked up the hill and saw two figures climb into the sunset on the flat rock and pause on the crest. The girl was Natalie Mallinson, the man Schuyler Channing.

"Huh!" The detective grinned, and reached for one of his black cigars. "I bet I can tell old 'Drydock' the next piece of foolishness his young hopeful will be up to."

TO MR. WARBURTON MALLINSON, 324 Park Avenue, New York. My Dear Brother-in-Law:—

There is no excuse for writing me a letter like that. I have torn it up and thrown the pieces into my wastebasket. Natalie is free, white, and—old enough to have the vote. As you will perhaps remember, I never did approve of Andy Herrick, with his white rabbit suit and his small, pink eyes.

You ask me, like the good Presbyterian you are, what in God's name Natalie sees in Schuyler Channing, and I can only answer, my dear brother-in-law, that I haven't the remotest idea what any woman sees in any man.

Why cavil about a little thing like distance? Thank your lucky stars you are 200 miles away and don't have to get hourly bulletins from the love market. I've listened to gossips until my ears ache.

It would appear that you have already met your son-to-be—five years ago aboard the Empress. Something, or-other, coming back from China.

Frankly Warburton, I always thought that story of a derelict and a native crew that thought they were being torpedoed by a submarine, was just one of your yarns. But Natalie assures me that Schuyler Channing was the hero of the occasion—that he prevented a mutiny and kept the crew from seizing the life-boats. Though what's so heroic in throwing a few Chinamen overboard is more than I can see. Personally, after the experience I had last year with Oriental servants, I would be glad to know that all of them were at the bottom of the ocean.

It may interest you to know, however, that the boat you were on, is one of the Java-Pacific line, operated by Mr. Channing, Sr., and that Schuyler was stoking his way back from China.

Yours through force of circumstances,
MERILDA TILLINGHAST.

THE END.

By Hayward

SOMEbody's STENOGRAPHER—Miss Scratch

MARY THE TAIL END OF MY VACATION IS JUST RUINED SINCE I REALIZED THAT MISS SCRATCH HAS BEEN LEFT ALONE IN THE OFFICE WITH A CHANCE TO SNOOP THROUGH MY DESK! AND THERE IS SOMETHING I LEFT IN THERE SHE SIMPLY MUST NOT FIND!

GOOD MORNING MISS SCRATCH, YOU CERTAINLY ARE AN EARLY BIRD! YOU LIKE TO USE MISS O'FLAGS DESK DON'T YOU?

OH I LOVE TO BOSS! I'VE BEEN SO GLAD I COULD KEEP HER WORK STRAIGHT FOR HER WHILE SHE WAS ON HER VACATION. SHE'S A DARLING GIRL!

I WAS JUST STRAIGHTENING UP HER DESK SO IT WILL LOOK NICE WHEN SHE COMES BACK MONDAY.

OH I'LL FIND SOMETHING THAT I CAN HOLD OVER THAT STUCK-UP BLONDE.

WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER

That Is Mrs. Dare's Privilege

I WROTE A LETTER TO KENNETH'S WIFE TELLING HER HE WAS HERE, BUT KENNETH DOESN'T KNOW IT!!

OH, WAIT!! I LAY ME HANDS ON HIM!! I'LL MOUNDER DE BIG BUM!!!

SO DAT BIRD TRIED TO MARRY WINNIE AN' ALL DE TIME HE KNEW HE HAD A WIFE A KID!! WHY DIDN'T I KNOW DAT BEFORE!! I'LL MASSACRE DE BIG STIFF!!!

B-BUT—ANNABELLE M'DEAR—L-LISTEN—ER—

SO YOU ARE UP TO YOUR OLD TRICKS AGAIN, YOU SNEAK!! WINNIE WINKLE IS A DECENT GIRL—SHE WROTE ME THAT YOU WERE HERE!! I OUGHT TO HORSE WHIP YOU—YOU—!!!!

DAT'S RIGHT MRS. DARE GIVE 'EM RATS SHE'S A NO-GOOD BUM—

YOU MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS AND DON'T YOU DARE CALL MY HUSBAND NO-GOOD BUM!!

WELL I'LL BE—!!!

Relieving the Monotony of Camp Life at Mother's Expense

When a Feller Needs a Friend

By Briggs

"HEY! MOM! WILLIE IS SHOOTIN' THE RAPIDS!"

"AND NOT A MAN IN CAMP!"

BACK FROM THE SUMMER CAMP

OH MOM!

MR. PET SHOP MAN, I WANT TO BUY SOMETHING

BUT DONT KNOW HOW TO ASK FOR IT

HOW ARE DEAD FISH SOLD?

BY THE POUND, LADY.

LIVE FISH COULDN'T BE SOLD BY WEIGHT.

NO! NO! CAN'T TALK 'EM OUT OF WATER.

WELL, THEN I WANT ABOUT A QUART OF GOLD FISH.

OH MOM!

MR. PET SHOP MAN, I WANT TO BUY SOMETHING

BUT DONT KNOW HOW TO ASK FOR IT

N. Y. Stock Transactions

[illegible]

01	50	Am Locom	75	73	73%	4	M K & T	11%	11
01	51	Am Metals	83	43	43%	5	W T P	2%	2
01	52	Am Oil	80	40	40%	6	M Pacific	9%	9
01	53	Am S&P Raz	51	5	5%	58	M Fre pr	25%	25
01	54	Am Smelt	82	10	10%	14	Ward	25%	25
01	55	Am Sugar	62	61	62%	9	Moore Motors	23%	23
01	56	Am Tel & Tel	123%	123%	123%	6	M Bull	14%	14
01	57	Am Tobacco	147	147	147%	6	Nat Acme	11%	11
01	58	Am Tob B	145%	145	145%	3	Nat Deit S	62%	62
01	59	Am Wagon	86	86	86%	1	Nat C& S	42%	42
01	60	Am Wood	101	101	101%	64	Nat Deit S	92%	92
01	61	Am Wip P&I	81	81	81%	83	Nat Deit S	122	122
01	62	Am Wines & Ld	40	40	40%	41	Nev Cop	113%	113
01	63	Am Metals	41	40	41%	41	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	64	Am Nevada	15%	15%	15%	4	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	65	Am Oil	88	88	88%	88	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	66	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	67	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	68	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	69	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	70	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	71	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	72	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	73	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	74	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	75	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	76	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	77	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	78	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	79	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	80	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	81	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	82	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	83	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	84	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	85	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	86	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	87	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	88	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	89	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	90	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	91	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	92	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	93	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	94	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	95	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	96	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	97	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	98	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	99	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35
01	100	Am Tobacco	145	145	145%	13	N Y Air B	35%	35

[illegible]

1074	9	Canadian I	44%	144%	144%	10 Phillips Pet	25%	22%
1075	1	Cerro de Pasco	45%	45%	40%	6 Pierce-A	10%	10%
1076	1	Chad Met	45%	45%	40%	6 Pierce-A	10%	10%
1077	2	Chl & Alt pfd	45	45	43	11 Pierce-A pfd	67%	67%
1078	1	Chl & Alt	45	45	43	11 Pierce-A	67%	67%
1079	1	Chl & Gt Western	44	44	44	2 Pitts Coal	61	61
1080	1	Chl & Gt West pfd	104	104	104	8 Pitts & W	42	41
1081	1	Chl & M	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1082	1	Chl & S	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1083	1	Chl & St P	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1084	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1085	1	Chl & S W pfd	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1086	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1087	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1088	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1089	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1090	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1091	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1092	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1093	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1094	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1095	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1096	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1097	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1098	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1099	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1100	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1101	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1102	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1103	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1104	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1105	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1106	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1107	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1108	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1109	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1110	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1111	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1112	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1113	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1114	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1115	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1116	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1117	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1118	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1119	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1120	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1121	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1122	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts & W	42	41
1123	1	Chl & S W	204	204	204	2 Pitts &

[illegible]

104	1	Cont Motor	7%	7%	7%
104½	32	Con Prod	128%	128%	127	1 St L & S W pr	58%
106	121	Cowden	31	29%	30½	9 San Ce Sug	1%
106½	2	Cowden pfd	85	85	85	1 Savage Arms	24½
106¾	21	Cruel Steel	67½	65%	65%	1 Schulte Ret S	114
90%	23	Cuba Cane Sug	11	10%	10%	3 Seaboard A L	5%
	57	Cuba Cane S pfd	41½	39%	40½	7 Seaboard A L pr	9%
100%	98	Cuban Am Sug	27	25%	26½	3 Senns Roebuck	76
						1 Shell T & T	21½

1997	4 Cuban Democracy	61%	63%	63%
1997	5 Panama Canal	57%	59%	59%
1997	61 Davidson Chem	34%	50%	34%
1997	7 U.S. & West	32%	34	34
1997	1 Dome Mines	32%	34	34
1997	8 U.S. Food & Drug	32%	34	34
1997	1 DUP de Nem Deb	83%	83%	83%
1997	2 Kwik Kwik	69%	50%	50%
1997	8 Erie Star Bat	69%	50%	50%
1997	137 Erie 1st pf'd	25%	25%	25%
1997	8 Erie 2nd pf'd	25%	25%	25%
1997	100 Erie 3rd pf'd	71%	69%	69%
1997	11 Penn Pn pf'd	87%	87%	87%
1997	12 Penn Pn pf'd	87%	87%	87%
1997	2 Fifth Ave Bus	47%	47%	47%
1997	1 Fisher Body	47%	47%	47%
1997	3 Pick Rubber	37%	37%	37%
1997	4 Pick Rubber	37%	37%	37%
1997	100 Con-

3	Foundation	73%	73	73	1	Subm Road	9%	9
4	FreepT Tx	11%	11%	11%	1	Tenn C & C	9	9
6	Gen Asphalt	28	27%	27%	13	Texas Com	41%	41%
3	Gen Electric	18%	11%	11%	3	Texas Gas & Sul	38%	38%
6	Gen Elec	11%	11%	11%	1	T & T	12%	12%
140	Gen Motors	1%	15%	15%	3	T & P C & OH	1	1
1	Gen Mot pfd	81%	81%	81%	1	Tide W Oil	101	101
5	Gen Mot 7 p c deb	82%	81%	82%	3	Timken R Brz	39	38%
1	Gen Mot 7 p c deb	97	97	97	37	Tob Prod	55%	54%

1	Goodyear T & R pfd	45 1/2	45 1/2	45 1/2	20	Transcont Oil	.....	44	84 1/2
2	1 Granby Min	19	19	19	15	Union Pac	.....	130 1/2	129 1/2
3	8 Great Nor pfd	54 1/4	54	54 1/4	1	U Tank Car	.....	87	87
4	4 Great Nor Ord Sub	30 1/4	30 1/4	30 1/4	1	United Fruit	.....	172	172
5	1 Greene C Cop	18 3/4	18 3/4	18 3/4	10	U S Steel	.....	28 1/2	28 1/2
6	1 Greenb C Cop	37 1/2	37 1/2	37 1/2	2	U S C I P & F	.....	23 1/2	23 1/2
7	7 Gulf Sta Stl pfd	83 1/4	81 1/4	81 1/4	2	U S Express	.....	3 1/2	3 1/2
8	1 Hartman Corp	86	86	86	1	U S Ind Alf Mach	.....	17	17
9	15 Hayes Wheel	37 1/2	37	37	3	U S Hoff	.....	48 1/4	48 1/4

the done	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
1	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
2	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
3	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
4	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55	56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66	67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77	78	79	80	81	82	83	84	85	86	87	88	89	90	91	92	93	94	95	96	97	98	99	100
5	1	2	3	4	5	6</

help	3 Int Bus ...	145	145	145	145
at-	4 Int Merc Mar pfd ...	213	213	213	213
	4 Int Nickel ...	131	127	127	127
	2 Int Paper ...	343	343	343	343
with	8 Intertec Corp ...	32	32	32	32
	2 Invaic Oil ...	83	83	83	83
we	11 Iron Prod ...	435	435	435	435
197	11 Iron Prod ...	435	435	435	435
ending	3 Island Oil ...	1	1	1	1
ations	1 Jewell Tea pfd ...	691	691	691	691
	1 Wey Maryland 24 pr. ...	18	18	18	18
	9 Wet Elec & Mfg ...	50	50	50	50
	1 Wheel & L E ...	67	67	67	67
	1 White L ...	22	22	22	22
	7 White Eagle Oil ...	22	22	22	22
	7 White Motor ...	518	518	518	518
	1 White Oil ...	1	1	1	1
	8 Wicks Sd Stl ...	6	6	6	6
	9 Willsco Corp ...	67	67	67	67
	8 Willsco Corp ...	67	67	67	67

22 Jones Bros .....	581	57	574	2 Woodworth .....	2519	2508	2
1 Kaus & Gulf .....	36	38	34	1 Wynnston S & .....	6015	6011	4
10 Kayer, J. .....	204	38	243	Total sales, 492,000, against 584,120
3 Kel-Spring .....	344	341	314	terday, 608,400 a week ago, 905,400
7 Ken-Cot Con .....	344	344	344	a year ago and 639,600 two years ago.
2 Keystone Tire .....	4	4	4	Jan. 1932 to date, 152,670,900, or
1 Kinney Co .....	568	568	568	158,932.979 a year ago and 110,675,318
5 Kroger S. S. ....	215	214	214	years ago.

Amusement Directory

THEATERS :: MOVIES

Foryth Theatre—Foryth Players — farce comedy-drama, "Johnny Get Goo."	Metropolitan Theater—All week, Marg de la Motte in "Wandering Daughters."
Loew's Grand—Vandeville and feature pic tures. See advertising for program.	Rialto Theater—All week, Mrs. Wal Reid's picture, "Human Wreckage."
Howard Theater — All week, Thomas Kynce's "The Pride of Palomar," and	Alamo Theater No. 2—Today, Peter Kynce's "The Pride of Palomar," and

WATERMELON BUYER RELEASED ON BOND

Macon, Ga., August 24.—Superior

Waycross, August 24.—(Special Material has arrived with word that start next week on the grading of the Waycross-Manor road, according to announcement by Clerk Mitchell of the land commission.

Peek was arrested here several weeks ago and requisition papers for his removal were issued by Governor McLeod, of South Carolina. Governor Walker honored this requisition paper on August 21. The warrant was issued for Peek and his companion, E. F. Mathis, on August 7. When the train arrived at the station, Gravel has been unloaded at several points along the road, and will start simultaneously at both ends of the route.

The stricture of road from Manor to the Clinch county line is nearing completion and with work starting on the

MOULTRIE ELECTION TO DECIDE CHANGES

Moultrie, Ga. August 24.—(Special.)—The voters of Moultrie will name a mayor and two members of city council at the regular municipal election which will be held here on October 1.

At the same time they will determine whether or not the city manager form of government shall be substituted for the present aldermanic system.

Macon, Ga., August 24.—Injunction proceedings were filed in superior court here today by T. C. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, bringing to an end the sale of certain property in Gordon, Ga., formerly owned by C. H. Gates, cashier.

Even if the change is made the city will still have a mayor, but the city manager will name the heads of the various departments of the municipal government.

MOONSHINE STILL FOUND WITHIN CITY

Moultrie, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—The first moonshine still ever

T. F. Purcell Dies.
Augusta, Ga., August 24.—Thomas F. Purcell, a dry goods merchant here, died today after a two-year illness.

all
ass

Besides getting the still officers destroyed a barrel of beer and a gallon of stump liquor.

honey bees in calm air has been found to be a little less than fifteen miles an hour.

nominal institutions as Mercer, the important officials and disc mony, Flament and Ogiethorpe, estab- the internal situation.

ness stroyed a barrel of beer and a gallon of stump liquor. to be a little less than fifteen mile an hour.

FOR-

son.

ANY-

Blue-

EVEN ing-

What

o see

e all

ALL

JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

GLORIA SWANSON

IN

'BLUEBEARD'S 8TH WIFE'

a Paramount Picture

Bosworth Revival Claims

Many "Faith Cures" Friday

Many testimonials of divine healing through the power of prayer, featured at the Friday night revival service at the Gospel tabernacle, an audience of more than 1,200, completely filling the tabernacle, heard Rev. F. F. Bosworth deliver his second sermon on a phase of divine healing.

Probably the most striking testimony of faith healing was given by C. H. McLean, well known Atlanta grocerman, who said he had been almost completely blind for the past three years but that through the power of prayer he was again regaining his eyesight.

Claims Cure. "Last Tuesday night," said Mr. McLean, "I came here and was prayed for by Rev. Bosworth. On Wednesday night I attended my church prayer meeting, and I was able to look over the congregation and recognize individuals. Last night coming here on the street car I happened to look down and through my left eye, which has been completely blind for three years, I saw my hand. I praise the Lord for His remarkable cure."

Many others testified that they had been healed by the evangelist, while others gave testimonials of the work that had been done there at the recent revival services held at the Auditorium.

Rev. Bosworth Speaks. Delivering his second sermon on divine healing, Rev. Bosworth spoke on the text: "Is it still the will of God to heal all who come to Him?"

"The Bible records," said the evangelist, "that in every single instance that the sick appealed to Him, He cured them. To know the will of God is to read the Bible, Christ never failed, but always healed every one who asked for healing."

"And, God is just as willing and ready to heal the sick today as he did thousands of years ago. God is the same yesterday, today and forever. The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

Mothers Battle For Possession Of Little Girl

Claiming that she had been given custody of 10-year-old Bessie Woodall by a dying request of the mother, who insisted that she take the infant and raise it as her own, Mrs. I. H. Roberts, foster mother, of 107 Carroll street, Friday morning appeared in police court to give her side of an altercation which she had with the stepmother of the child. The fight between the foster mother on the one hand and the 17-year-old stepmother on the other was a result of an attempt on the part of the stepmother to take the child from Mrs. Roberts Thursday afternoon.

In dismissing the case, Recorder Johnson said that police court was not the place to decide the custody of the child.

"Then she got very angry and abused me," she slapped her face. She threw a milk bottle at me. It did not strike me, but Bessie, who was clinging to me, Bessie loves me and wants to stay with me and I am not going to give her up if I can help it."

In police court, the little girl declared that she loved "Mother Roberts" and that she did not want to leave her. She said that Mrs. Roberts had been good to her and had cared for her and that she was the only mother that she knew.

In dismissing the case, Recorder Johnson said that police court was not the place to decide the custody of the child.

The contention of the stepmother is supported by the father of the child, S. S. Woodall, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

SLEUTHS FIND RINGS

Gems Returned to Avoid Detection, Officers Declare.

Diamond rings which were stolen from the apartment of Mrs. Ruth Young, 863 West Peachtree street, were found by Detectives J. C. Mosely and J. C. Davis Friday night after a search of two days. The gems were valued at more than $4,000 by Mrs. Young.

With practically no clue on which to base their suspicions, the detectives kept on the case until the alleged thief grew alarmed and returned the valuables, Mrs. Young said. They were found in a hiding place which the detectives had already searched, the officers said, and this led to a strong suspicion that they were stolen and that the thief feared detection. No case was made at the request of Mrs. Young.

Show Fireless Cooker.

Jessie Willey, of 55 Weyman street, Atlanta, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)—A fireless cooker demonstration was held at Smith High school at Dry Branch near here Friday. Instructions in the making and use of the fireless cooker were given by Mrs. Kathleen Carswell, Troup county home demonstration agent. A large class attended the demonstration.

The ordinance of anointing the sick with oil and praying for them to be cured, is as sacred and binding on the church today, as is the ordinance of baptism."

Evangelist Bosworth will not preach tonight but will speak three times on Sunday, at the tabernacle, at 11 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:45 at night.

BOYKIN REFUSES TO HELP COBURN

Despite the fact that Solicitor General John A. Boykin stoutly declares to whom Mr. Coburn has no connection with his department, nor in any other way so far as he knows, in prosecuting E. C. Stigall, vice squad leader of the police department, the murder of W. H. Hames, private detective, Friday, August 17, Captain Coburn maintains that he will participate in the prosecution, complying as he says with the expressed wish of Mrs. Hames, widow of the slain man.

Solicitor Boykin declared Friday night, when questioned concerning his position in the matter, that he "intended running this case with no interference from anyone."

"I have had no communication with Mr. Coburn concerning the case," he stated. "It is true that he was in my office on the day Stigall was indicted, but I did not go to speak to him and presumed that he was there merely as a spectator. John Wilson, to whom Mr. Coburn referred as having communicated with me in regard to the case, has not come."

"I received a letter of a rather personal nature from Mr. Coburn, which contained the first information aside from press reports, that he considered himself as connected with me in the prosecution of Stigall."

Coburn's Letter. Following Mr. Boykin's announcement that he was aware of Captain Coburn's connection with the case, he sent the following letter to the solicitor as long as a reply:

"August 24, 1923. "Mr. John A. Boykin, Solicitor General, Atlanta, Ga. "Dear Sir: I have just been called to a statement which you have furnished one of the local papers in the city, that you had no connection with my employment in the Stigall murder case. In this connection, please allow me to state that I was employed by the Hames family during the night of the shooting on Friday night, and I took particular caution to send word to you by your associate, Mr. John Wilson, in addition to the fact that I worked in connection with some of the investigators, and was at your offices on the morning the case went before the grand jury."

"In this connection, I wish to state that in addition to my employment, Mr. H. A. Allen will be associated with me."

"It is regrettable that you should furnish a statement of this kind to the newspapers after having received information of this character from me, as certainly it is not the manner in which I would handle the case, had I been solicitor general, and you are practicing law."

"I will be pleased to have your reply to this letter, and shall be pleased to work in conjunction with you, so far as my judgment dictates, and I am, Yours very truly, "WILLIAM S. COBURN."

"Will Be On Hand." Captain Coburn declared that he intended being on hand for the day of Stigall's trial to "see that Hames' widow received justice." He stated that since he had been retained by Mrs. Hames to prosecute the case he was legally in right, and would not be stopped.

In reply to the solicitor's statement that he had no knowledge of Captain Coburn's part in the prosecution, Captain Coburn declared that he had been informed by John Wilson that the solicitor was willing to co-operate with him.

Captain Coburn stated that he would continue to prepare for the trial and that he has the case well under hand.

Leviathan Proves Fitness To Reign As Queen of Seas

Southampton, August 24.—Leaving Sandy Hook light vessel a half hour behind the crack British liner Olympic, the S. S. Leviathan arrived here at 1:55 p. m. Friday, 18 hours ahead of the rival ocean greyhound.

The Leviathan made an average speed of 24.23 knots an hour, crossing the ocean in 5 days 11 hours and 16 minutes.

GEORGIANS NAMED FOR RIFLE CONTEST

Fifty-one national guard units from all over the state were represented in the Georgia state championship rifle matches which were started Monday on the range near Fort McPherson. No competition was held for the company trophies because companies failed to send representative teams, according to Major Spratt, under whose direction the match took place.

The results were: 200-yard rifle, Captain A. S. Brown, Macon, 44 out of a possible 50, the Daniel medal; 300-yard rifle, Private J. S. Small, Macon, 47 out of a possible 50, the Stockdale medal; the adjutant's rifle, 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards, Captain A. S. Brown, Macon, 173 out of a possible 200, the Scott medal.

Private Small, 49 out of a possible 50, the Dunwoody medal; 300-yard rapid fire, Private Small, 49 out of a possible 50, the Scott medal.

The Crankshaw medal was won by Sergeant Joe Avans with a total score of 634 while Captain A. S. Brown, Macon, won the entire course and total fired. This medal goes to the high scorer of all the shoots and all the courses is added to make the total.

Twelve men were selected to represent Georgia on the national contest at Camp Perry, Ohio, in September. They are: Sergeant Joe Avans, Atlanta; Sergeant J. K. Bates, Lawrenceville; Captain A. S. Brown, Macon; Lieutenant W. P. Cowan, Atlanta; Corporal C. L. Dillinger, Atlanta; Sergeant W. G. Kline, Macon; Corporal H. L. Lorry, Atlanta; Lieutenant E. E. Melton, Macon; Sergeant E. A. Rainwater, Atlanta; J. S. Small, Macon; Sergeant L. R. Turner, Macon; Sergeant W. A. Wilder, Springfield.

The graphophone at the Greenwater drug store is a source of much entertainment to the public. It is a musical concert nightly. It is a harmonic of sounds and string types of music sweet toned to that of the rippling laughter of all the inflections of elocution.—Greenwater (Cal.) Times.

As a rule the more brilliant the color of a flower, the less likely it is to be scented.

For centuries the primrose has been esteemed an unlucky flower among the English country folk.

George Washington was inaugurated president of the United States at New York, April 30, 1789.

The German mark may be easy to get, but it is easier to buy (to get), but it is easier to buy (to get), but it is easier to buy (to get).

—Daily Financial America.